

PicKelo

Defies competition. He guarantees his pictures the best that money can buy. Prices down to bed rock. Everybody invited. Monmouth st. Independence.

Social and Personal.

Harry Hosler is visiting his mother.

Miss Laurie Burnett is clerking at F. A. Douty's.

S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, pays highest price for wool.

Oak posts for sale by Isaac Connett, Independence.

Miss Vanche Dickinson spent Friday evening in Corvallis.

Delineator and Designer for July are now on sale at Wagoner's.

C. L. Fitchard is in the Bohemia mining district.—Eugene Register.

Miss Vida Torbet left Sunday for Albany to spend a few weeks with her parents.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

A. P. Banzey is here from San Francisco to look after extensive interests in the hop line.

Clarence Hamilton, of the firm of Buren & Hamilton, Salem, was in town Monday on business.

James Alexander sold 14 acres of his place a mile and a half from town to Jasper M. Craven for $850.

If a horse is not properly shod it cannot travel. Fer-nell & Hutton know how to properly shoe a horse. Try them. Work guaranteed.

Mrs. Lilla Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. M. Hurley. She lived here several years.

Sherman Lemmon, a former citizen of Independence, is here this week from McCormick, Washington.

Roy Irvine visited his mother here last week, taking the train to Portland Friday. He is at present employed in the Criterion office, Lebanon.

The Buckeye Washer is the best washing machine ever put on the market. Every machine guaranteed. For sale cheap by R. M. Wade & Co.

H. L. Smock, one of the Southern Pacific freight brakemen, who was on the run through here, was crushed to death between two cars near McMinnville last week.

When in town try Huntley's Restaurant for a first class meal. Special rates by the week.

The No 2 Brownie kodak, only $2 at Frazer & Rice's.

Dixon Dehorner is quaranteed to remove horns from calves up to one year old. Its work is clean, smooth and reliable. Campbell Bros.

The McCormick binders, mowers and rakes and repairs for same carried in stock by Frazer & Rice.

Cal Hutton, the horse-shoer, a Fennell's.

All kinds of wood work neatly done at Hilliard & Plymale's.

A good stock of kodaks and supplies at Frazer & Rice's.

Ice cream in packer 20 cents per pint. Wagoner's.

Harry Clodfelter, of Corvallis, was in town on business last week.

The Independence creamery will pay cash for eggs and country butter.

Mrs. P. R. Burnett and daughter, Florence, spent Saturday in Salem.

Miss Lottie Ground, of Portland, was an incoming passenger Friday morning.

Soda pop in bottles—right from the ice, for family use at Wagoner's.

Paul Wyman, one of this year's Normal graduates, leaves today for Tacoma, Wash.

Miss Hattie Hartman left Friday for Portland, where she will reside in the future.

Wool! Wool! 500,000 pounds of wool wanted at highest market price by S. M. Daniel, Monmouth.

J. A. Veness, of Winlock, Washington, who for years run a saw-mill in this city, was here Saturday morning.

Hugh Esson, a graduate of the Normal came in Saturday night to attend the graduating exercises at Monmouth this week.

P. H. Murphy, who for years was a cobbler in this city, came down Friday. He is now residing at Grass Valley and is doing well.

R. M. Wade & Co. have received their second car of wire fencing. This fence is as cheap as lumber and will last a life time.

Before placing your order for mowers, hay rakes or hay tools. Call on R. M. Wade & Co. they have the goods and will make the prices.

Everybody likes good things to eat. Strong's Restaurant at Salem is the place to get them. Everything served in season. Right prices.

Henry Winn has raised his bail and is now out of the county jail. It is understood that no criminal action is to be instituted against him by the brother.

Mrs. David Foulkes and her sister, Miss Lottie Ground, are attending the commencement exercises of the State Normal School at Monmouth this week.—Sunday Oregonian.

George Murphy, who is attending school at Eugene, came down Friday to attend commencement exercises at Monmouth. He will go to Grass Valley after then. His cousin, Frank McMurray, of Eugene, accompanied him.

Prof. A. J. Shipley, of Monmouth, has traded his town property there for thirty acres of land two and a half miles west of town, which he will devote to the cultivation of fruit, vegetables, strawberries, etc. He will teach school however, during the winter months.

Bicycles, like pedestrians, soon make good paths along roads. This is exemplified in this county. Not one dollar has ever been spent on bicycle paths but good ones are found on various roads leading out of the city. It is a pleasure to ride over the path leading out south. For nearly a couple of miles a nice hard road bed affords a most delightful bicycle spin. Likewise there is an excellent path on the Monmouth road.

Sheriff-elect J. T. Ford was over from Dallas Tuesday on business.

Hon. George L. Hawkins was in Oregon City this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ireland returned last week from Portland.

Mrs. Albert Jessup, of Salem, is visiting with her father, Thomas Fennell.

Mrs. Beatrice Molesworth is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. M. Hurley.

Mrs. J. A. Wheeler returned Friday from a several days' stay in Portland.

Miss Rose Clodfelter is in Corvallis this week attending commencement.

Rev. E. J. Thompson attended the Corvallis commencement exercises this week.

Mrs. Will Mattison, of Astoria, came in Sunday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. E. Hubbard.

County Treasurer E. V. Dalton, of Dallas, attended the A. O. U. W. banquet here Monday evening.

The river is falling rapidly, about six to eight inches daily. The boats now have to land at the upper landing.

Prof. W. O. Bryant, who has been teaching at Moro, Oregon, attended the commencement exercises at Monmouth this week.

A. C. Hummer, of Seattle, representing Armour & Co., was in Independence the other day. He is buying butter, eggs and poultry.

The Misses Josie Buchanan, of Portland, and Regina Wilt, of Tillamook, students at the Normal, left Friday for their respective homes.

There will be an extra motor to Dallas, Saturday morning to accommodate those who wish to attend the Pioneers picnic. It will leave Independence at 9:30.

Thomas Burford, of Klickitat, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davidson last week. He is an old timer here and this is the first visit he has made to Independence for forty years.

Miss Grace Damon visited her parents, south of town over Sunday. She was accompanied by the Misses Leona Ryan and Margaret Folsom, two of the capital city's popular young ladies.

Mrs. P. H. Drexlar, mother of Mrs. Percy Dickinson, accompanied by Miss Millie Clark is here from Marion Junction, South Dakota, on a visit of two month's duration with a probability of locating here.

Buren & Hamilton, the leading furniture dealers of Salem have a new half page ad this week. They keep the best in the market at prices within the reach of all. See their announcement on editorial page.

W. P. Connaway, cashier of the bank at Vancouver, Wash., was in town Saturday. He was showing the country to a relative from Missouri who was visiting him. They visited Dallas, Salem and other valley towns. "W. P." is still an enthusiastic Oregonian, and takes pride in showing the valley to his friends.

The Oregon Milling & Warehouse Co., of Independence will begin grinding tomorrow. Farmers are requested to take their exchanges to the new mill.

Ice Weather.

THE time for a general use of ice will now be on us very soon, and we are prepared to serve you with the very best drinks that ice keeps cold. Our ice cream is the very best that can be made from the pure cream, and is giving fine satisfaction. Ice cream sodas are now the popular things.

Ice Cream per gal.	$1.25
" " 2 quarts	75c
" " 1 "	40c
" " 1 pint	20c

In quantities of over 5 gallons a special price will be given. Soda-pop in bottles for family use—right from the ice. Call and take home a few bottles.

Harry E. Wagoner,
Confectioner,
Main St., Independence.

Preaching services in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening as usual. Interesting topics for both services.

Mrs. Geo. McGowan and daughter, of Portland, a former resident of Monmouth, visited friends here this week.

Miss Florence Wagoner was a Salem visitor, Wednesday.

Harry E. Wagoner made a business visit to Salem, Monday.

Saturday the Polk County Pioneers Association will meet in annual assembly at Dallas. We have not seen or been favored with a program, yet we predict a fine time for the grand old people on this occasion.

Geo. F. Rodgers & Co.
Wholesale

Paper Dealers.

Wrapping Paper, Paper Bags Twine, etc. Photographers' Mounts and Printers' Supplies. We can save you money on anything in the paper line. Get our prices. 130 Court St. Salem, Ore.

Donation Land Claim for Sale.

Taken in 1842. Notification 5075. Three-quarters of mile west of Lewisville. 150 acres in cultivation; 2 barns house and orchard; all under fence, and crop fenced. Inquire on the premises. 5-29-2m A. WING.

Auctioneers!

When in need of the services of good auctioneers address J. D. or J. F. Good, auctioneers, Salem, Oregon.

Terms Reasonable.

Charles Mattison was in Oregon City on business this week.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...

Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,
Physician & Surgeon.

Office in Opera House building. Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.

E. T. HENKLE,
Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade,
Davidson & Hedges, Props.

CIGARS, Cigarettes, Tobaccos and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...

Monmouth Laundry
H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.

Should have your Work.

...Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday....

Work Guaranteed.

Monmouth, Oregon.

H. H. Jasperson,
UNDERTAKER,
Independence, Oregon.