

Pickel
 Defies competition. He guarantees his pictures the best that money can buy. Prices down to bed rock. Everybody invited. Monmouth st. Independence.

Social and Personal.

Ed Owen was a Southern Oregon visitor last week.
 First-class horseshoeing at Fennell & Hutton's.
 Rev. G. H. Osborne is in Portland this week on business.
 Second hand buggy and cart for sale at R. M. Wade & Co.
 Fred Burnett, an inmate of the Soldiers Home at Roseburg, is visiting old friends here.
 Jake Hilliard, who has been at Oregon City for several years, has returned to Independence.
 T. J. Newbill, the new principal of the Independence public school, was in the city Wednesday.
 The steamer Gray Eagle, the well-known logging boat, was sunk on the lower river yesterday.
 Cash paid for eggs and country butter at the Independence creamery.
 It is learned that Mrs. Rutherford whose thumb was so severely injured by a needle breaking, may lose the thumb after all. She is in Portland receiving medical assistance.
 Royal servers, W. H. Walker, G. L. Hawkins, Rev. Osborne, Geo. Conkey and J. A. Mills, June 30 at lawn social at Mills.
 Mrs. C. L. Marks, of Monmouth, with her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Brown, who has been attending school in Dallas, have moved to Independence to make their future home.
 Second hand buggy for sale by Frazier & Rice.
 President P. L. Campbell delivered the address to the graduating class of the Portland high school Tuesday evening.
 For bargains in Shirt Waists Wrappers and Muslin Underwear call on Mrs. M. W. Wallace, Independence.
 The Independence students at Mt. Angel college returned home this week. In the account of the commencement exercises we note several of the girls mentioned for superior talent.
 Everybody likes good things to eat. Strong's Restaurant at Salem is the place to get them. Everything served in season. Right prices.
 The Southern Pacific company has arranged to place on sale at Portland city and depot offices tickets to Dallas via either Yamhill or West Side Divisions and White-son. This will be a great convenience as it will obviate the necessity of going to the Jefferson street depot to secure tickets.
 Go to the lawn social at J. A. Mills' residence Monday evening, June 30. The men will serve you ice cream and cake.
 Go to R. M. Wade & Co. for fishing tackle.
 We saw the other day W. H. Kingery, a former student at Monmouth, but now principal of the school at Carlton, and he informed us that he was going to start out the 30th of June with a company of young boys on a tenting expedition, and to study natural history, geology, etc. from nature. In addition it will be a splendid outing. Ted Cooper goes from here.
 Wool! Wool! 500,000 pounds of wool wanted at highest market price by S. M. Daniel, Monmouth.
 Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

Mrs. G. W. Kutch visited Mc Minnville over Sunday.
 The male quartette will sing at the lawn social June 30 at Mills.
 Miss Ona Baker left Tuesday for Portland, to join her parents there.
 S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, pays highest price for wool.
 Grand coronator and seater, W. H. Craven for the men's social on June 30 at J. A. Mills' residence.
 Rev. P. R. Burnett, of Oakesdale, Wash., arrived Tuesday on a visit to his family.
 Mrs. A. M. Hurley is enlarging and otherwise improving her millinery store.
 J. E. Miller was a passenger to Portland Monday afternoon, for a few days stay.
 H. Hirschberg returned Monday from a trip to San Francisco with the Shriners.
 Mrs. M. Babbitt and son Dick, also Miss Bowden, were Corvallis visitors this week.
 Miss Vanche Dickinson left Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., where she will visit for several weeks.
 Mrs. Lula Mason Bennett has returned from Kent, Sherman county, where she has been teaching school.
 F. W. Harris, who recently graduated with honors at a Philadelphia medical college, is visiting relatives here.
 Choice pattern hats and a well selected line of millinery goods at greatly reduced prices at Mrs. M. W. Wallace's, Independence.
 Mr. and Mrs. Mundt and children of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, are visiting A. E. Landwehr's family, with the intention of residing here permanently.
 It has just been learned by us that Geo. Heaton, an old soldier sent from here to the Soldiers Home at Roseburg, was the victim of a fatal case of heart trouble a couple of weeks or so ago. The remains were interred in Roseburg.
 R. M. Wade & Co. have just received a large shipment of shot guns, single barrels, double barrels, hammerless, etc. We have the guns and will surprise you with prices.
 If you have anything in the wood work line go to Hilliard & Plymale. They have a first-class wood worker in connection with their shop.
 If a horse is not properly shod it cannot travel. Fennell & Hutton know how to properly shoe a horse. Try them. Work guaranteed.
 Mrs. Maude Ireland left yesterday for Eastern Oregon to spend a few weeks.
 For Binders, Mowers and Rakes and all extras for the Osborne machines call on J. H. Moran, Monmouth, Oregon.
 Miss Myrtle Lee, who has been visiting her mother and friends in Portland returned to Independence last Thursday evening.
 Miss Nenta Potter, of Portland came up Friday morning on a short visit to friends here.
 Miss Francis Mann has returned, after a several months' tour of Europe and is visiting in Independence.
 The Independence creamery will pay cash for eggs and country butter.
 When in town try Huntley's Restaurant for a first class meal. Special rates by the week.
 Ralph Fisher, assistant principal at Woodburn, is spending a part of his vacation at Monmouth.
 J. D. Conyers and wife came in Monday from Pullman, Wash., where he is employed in the Washington Agricultural College.
 The electric lights were closed down Sunday evening for a few days, to give opportunity for necessary repairs.

F. A. Link, of Lewisville, was an Independence visitor, Monday.
 The No 2 Brownie kodak, only $2 at Frazier & Rice's.
 Mrs. Ed Owen visited Mt. Angle this week.
 Ladies Home Journal and Munsey for July now in at Wagoner's.
 The lawn social by the men at the residence of J. A. Mills June 30. Grand collector of 10c pieces, R. H. Knox.
 Miss Edna Burnett leaves Monday for a summer's visit at Ashland with her brother.
 Take your wool to S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, and get the highest market price in cash.
 Ed Owen we understand, will accept a position in the Imperial saloon the first of next month.
 G. A. Forbes, of the physical culture department of the Normal, leaves today for his old home in Minnesota.
 Frank McMurray, who spent several days here last week, returned to Eugene, Friday.
 Rev. D. V. Poling, of The Dalles, was in this city Friday, in route from Dallas to Albany.
 Mrs. H. H. Gridley and Mrs. F. M. Butterfield, of Vancouver, Wash. after a short visit with their sister, Mrs. J. S. Moore returned home Saturday.
 Geo. Murphy, after attending commencement exercises at Monmouth, left last week for his home in Grass Valley.
 Dixon Dehorner is guaranteed to remove horns from calves up to one year old. Its work is clean, smooth and reliable. Campbell Bros.
 P. H. Murphy, who has been here several days, returned to Grass Valley Friday.
 The McCormick binders, mowers and rakes and repairs for same carried in stock by Frazier & Rice.
 H. R. Neirbas, the business manager of the Luckiamute Flouring Mills, was in Independence on business this week. He reports everything at the mill in readiness to begin operations.
 Cal Hutton, the horse-shoer, at Fennell's.
 Harry and Francis Patterson, children of H. A. Patterson came up from Portland Saturday to spend several weeks with D. L. Hedge's family.
 Walter I. Ford, formerly of this city, was graduated last week with high honors from the Dallas Academy.
 All kinds of wood work neatly done at Hilliard & Plymale's.
 A special motor will leave Airlie and Dallas on the morning of July 4th for the accommodation of those who wish to spend the Fourth at Salem. The motor will make close connection with the boat at Independence both going and returning.
 Mrs. J. Stapleton, of Independence, arrived here Tuesday evening for a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. M. Deaton. Mrs. Deaton will probably accompany her mother home and spend the summer in the salubrious climate of the Willamette Valley.—Ione Post.
 Wringers with guaranteed Rolls at R. M. Wade & Co.
 A meeting of the Willamette Presbytery will be held at Gervais next week. Dr. Thompson from here will attend.
 Three daughters of V. B. Sears and wife, of Ballston, will this month graduate from the university at Eugene—Vessie in the post graduate course. Sadie from the state course and Winnie with the senior class.—Dallas Itemizer.
 Second hand bicycles at R. M. Wade & Co.
 A good stock of kodaks and supplies at Frazier & Rice's.

4th of July

AT SALEM.

Salem extends a cordial invitation to the people of Independence to celebrate a Glorious Fourth with them.

Steamer Pomona will run excursions

Between Salem and Independence all day.

Elaborate Floats, Fine Music, Excellent Speaking, Thrilling Athletic Contests and Unparalleled Fireworks.

You can't afford to miss it.

J. E. Kirkland is in Southern Oregon this week.
 Miss Ethel Whiteaker, of this city, visited in Dallas last week.
 All kinds of hay tools at R. M. Wade & Co.
 C. W. Butler visited Eugene and other Southern Oregon points last week.
 Robbie VanOrsdel, son of Sheriff VanOrsdel, of Dallas, has been visiting in Independence.
 Miss Persenhone Butler, of Monmouth left Saturday for Junction City, to visit with her sister, Mrs. A. R. Martin, for several days.
 T. J. Fryer is in California this week. On his return he will visit Grants Pass a few days.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hays and Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Smith spent Sunday in Falls City.
 Miss May Wilson, of Reno, Nevada, who usually spends her vacation in Independence each year, arrived last week and is visiting S. B. Irvine's family.
 F. A. Douty and employees spent Sunday at the pleasant country home of O. A. Wolverton.
 Prof. W. A. Hooker and bride, of Brownsville, were Independence visitors Saturday.
 Mrs. Nellie Paddock, of Independence, came over Thursday to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Staiger, of this city—Salem Democrat.
 S. E. Lemmon returned to McCormick, Washington, last week, after being here a few days on business.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
 ...Dentist...
 Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,
 Physician & Surgeon.
 Office in Opera House building, Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.

E. T. HENKLE,
 Bath and Barber Shop.
 MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade,
 Davidson & Hedges, Props.
 Cigars, Cigarettes, Tobaccos and Confectionery.
 FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...
Monmouth Laundry
 H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.
 Should have your Work.
 ...Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday....
 Work Guaranteed.
 Monmouth, Oregon.

H. H. Jasperson,
 UNDERTAKER,
 Independence, :: Oregon.