

PicKelo

Defies competition. He guarantees his pictures the best that money can buy. Prices down to bed rock. Everybody invited. Monmouth st. Independence.

Social and Personal.

All kinds of hay tools at R. M. Wade & Co.

Henry Patterson, of Portland, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Bertha Bohannon visited in Corvallis during the week.

Second hand buggy and cart for sale at R. M. Wade & Co.

Miss Bessie Connett, of this city, was in Portland Saturday.

Dean Goodman left Friday for Eugene on a visit to relatives.

L. W. Robertson, of Portland, was in Independence Saturday.

Mr. Hindmarsh came up from Portland last Tuesday evening.

Rev. P. R. Burnett attended campmeeting at Turner last week.

Frank Lord left Saturday for Astoria, where he has employment.

H. C. Miller is able to be out again after a several days' illness.

Cash paid for eggs and country butter at the Independence creamery.

Roy McFadden is visiting his uncle, Horace Burnett, and wife in Eugene.

J. A. Veness and wife, of Winlock, Washington, visited in town last week.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

Mrs. J. Shelley, of Eugene, visited friends in Monmouth and Independence last week.

Miss Eva Robinson returned Friday from Arlington, where she has been for several months past.

Miss Myrtle Lee was a passenger to Portland Friday afternoon. She will remain there for several weeks.

For bargains in Shirt Waists Wrappers and Muslin Underwear call on Mrs. M. W. Wallace, Independence.

Mrs. O. D. Ireland, of Portland, visited relatives in Monmouth last week, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Huston, after several days' visit with his brother, A. Huston, returned Friday to his home at Lafayette.

S. Hays and wife, Mrs. P. R. Burnett and daughters, also C. W. Irvine, attended the campmeeting at Turner Sunday.

Mr. Ireland and wife, of near Monmouth, drove to their home-stand in Eastern Oregon, where they will spend several weeks.

Everybody likes good things to eat. Strong's Restaurant at Salem is the place to get them. Everything served in season. Right prices.

Mrs. George McGowan and daughter, of Portland, after several days' visit with A. J. Goodman's family, left Friday for Creswell to visit a few days.

S. E. Owen, J. E. Kirkland, T. D. Campbell and T. J. Fryer were in Southern Oregon last week locating timber claims. They returned home Friday.

Editor Vernon and family, of Oakland, Oregon, were in the city Friday. He reports that live Southern Oregon town enjoying a genuine boom and that our former fellow-townsmen, Rev. W. S. Smith, as being highly pleased with his location. Mr. Vernon, as a journeyman printer, worked on the old West Side when it was under the management of E. C. Pentland.

First-class wood work done at Hilliard & Plymale's.

T. C. Allen, valedictorian of this year's Normal class, left Sunday for Union county, where he will spend the summer. Mr. Allen has been elected to a chair in the Training department, at Monmouth and will return in the fall.

A good second hand canopy top phaeton for sale also a set of single harness. J. A. Mills.

Ice Cream Freezers at Frazer & Rice's.

The Pomona will make two round trips to Salem on the Fourth. The first boat will leave Independence at 7 a. m. and again at 10 p. m. Returning will leave Salem at 5 p. m. and again after the fireworks.

A good line of Tents and Camp Stoves at Frazer & Rice's.

C. W. Pagett, a well known resident of Pedee, was in town Tuesday. He was lately appointed justice of the peace for that precinct. He reports crops as very promising and help exceedingly scarce.

Wringers with guaranteed Rolls at R. M. Wade & Co.

Prof. R. C. French and wife left Sunday afternoon for Minneapolis, Minn., where they will attend the National Teachers' Association meeting. From there they will go to Massachusetts, their old home, where they will spend the summer.

I. L. Patterson has been re-appointed collector of customs at Portland. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Patterson, of this city, and for years has been closely identified with the business and political fields of Polk and Marion counties. The position carries a salary of $4,500 a year.

All kinds of wood work neatly done at Hilliard & Plymale's.

Miss Edna Burnett left Monday for Ashland, to enjoy a summer's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Witherow returned Monday from St. Louis, Missouri, whither they had been for treatment for Mrs. Witherow. She is greatly improved.

When in town try Huntley's Restaurant for a first class meal. Special rates by the week.

G. W. Henkle was a business visitor in town over Sunday, returning to Corvallis Monday.

Mrs. J. S. Cooper was a passenger to Portland Monday.

Mrs. W. Mattison, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Hubbard, returned to her home in Astoria Monday.

Mrs. Bingham, of Bandon, Ore., visited in town and Monmouth a part of last week.

Blair Miller, a former resident of this city, now runs a store in Keatsville, Mo.

Mrs. A. K. Leonard has written to her son, C. W. Leonard, of her safe arrival at Salisbury, Mo. She had spent the winter at the home of her son, near Monmouth.

W. L. Bristow has moved his general merchandise store from Monmouth to Lewisville.

Girl Wanted—Call at Huntley's Restaurant.

President Ressler, of the Normal, was here this week looking over the surroundings and familiarizing himself with the work. He is a pleasant, affable gentleman, and the ENTERPRISE acknowledges a pleasant call.

Second hand bicycles at R. M. Wade & Co.

Henry Hill left Sunday to meet his son, Homer, who is en route from Crook county with a band of horses. The horses are to be brought to the valley for sale.

The Independence creamery will pay cash for eggs and country butter.

Examine that line of Sewing Machines at Frazer & Rice's.

Mrs. J. E. Shinn and child came in from Eastern Oregon Tuesday on a visit to relatives here.

J. B. Seraford and children were passengers to Junction City Tuesday to spend the 4th.

Choice pattern hats and a well selected line of millinery goods at greatly reduced prices at Mrs. M. W. Wallace's, Independence.

We have just received direct from Chicago a line of Drop Head Sewing Machines that range in price from $20 to $35. Frazer & Rice.

Miss Garlin Hill returned Saturday from Pomeroy, Wash. She will return this fall to Pomeroy, where she has a position as assistant principal in the high school.

For Binders, Mowers and Rakes and all extras for the Osborne machines call on J. H. Moran, Monmouth, Oregon.

If you have anything in the wood work line go to Hilliard & Plymale. They have a first-class wood worker in connection with their shop.

Miss Laverne Fenton, of McMinnville, who has been visiting at the home of J. B. V. Butler, in Monmouth, returned home last week.

The Pomona came up Saturday evening and remained over night, proceeding up the river in the morning. The trip down Monday morning was the last one this season from up river points, above Independence. The boat will make this place up to the last of the month.

Do not send East for that Sewing Machine, but get it of Frazer & Rice's.

Clover Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 56 installed the following officers Tuesday evening: Rachel Hawkins, N. G.; Suzie Locke, V. G.; Bessie Butler, Sec.; Lena Jones, Treas.; Nettie Bohannon, Warden; Kate Jones, Conductor; Mintie Taylor, Inside Guard; Elva Taylor Outside Guard; Nancy Claggett, R. S. N. G.; Sara Irvine, L. S. N. G.; Ada Taylor, L. S. V. G.; Mabel Cressy, R. S. V. G.; Marguerite Goodman, Chaplain.

If you want Men's or Boy's full stock Asbestos Calf Hand Made Shoes call on 'C. B. Clevenger, the Shoe Maker, Independence Ore.

The men's ice cream social given at the home of J. A. Mills Monday evening was marred by the cool weather prevailing and ice cream could have been substituted by hot coffee. However the other features more than compensated for the discomfort of the evening.

The annual Bible Conference and campmeeting of the United Evangelical church will be held in the grove at Dallas July 5-14. Tenting ground free. This will be a good time and place to spend a week outing.

There will be another union service of the M. E. and the United Evangelical churches in the church of the latter next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor of the Evangelical church will preach subject, "Church Abominations." Saint and sinner will be equally interested in this subject. All are invited. K. L. C. E. meets at 7 P. M.; topic, "The Father's Care." Mrs. B. J. Kelly, leader. Come and take part.

Mr. Clyde Hill, a former Independence boy, had his team stolen a few nights ago from the barn in which they were kept. The constable, of Cottage Grove started out to investigate the matter and met the horses, returning about forty miles from Leona, the place from which they were taken. The culprits probably rode until the break of day and then turned the horses loose. As it so happened Tracy and Merrill were not in that part of the country the credit could not be given them.

4th of July

AT SALEM.

Salem extends a cordial invitation to the people of Independence to celebrate a Glorious Fourth with them.

Steamer Pomona will run excursions

Between Salem and Independence all day.

Elaborate Floats, Fine Music, Excellent Speaking, Thrilling

Athletic Contests and Unparalleled Fireworks.

You can't afford to miss it.

Miss Lorene Claggett, of Portland, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Claggett.

R. M. Wade & Co have just received a large shipment of shot guns, single barrels, double barrels, hammerless, etc. We have the guns and will surprise you with prices.

Rickreall.

Helen Southwick and Mrs. T. McDowell returned Saturday from Salem, where they had been visiting for a few days.

A. Harshon expects to move to Salem soon.

J. Cox had the misfortune to have a piece of a steel wedge fly off while splitting wood and cut his leg. The accident, while painful, is not considered dangerous.

L. C. Koser and A. E. Stoner have been repairing the large scales at the Rickreall store, which was much needed.

S. Orr will build a residence on his place for his son-in-law, Otis Waite, who rented the farm for the coming year.

Mrs. Fannie Stinson and Pauline Nesmith went to Salem Monday.

J. W. Goodell went to Salem Saturday on business.

Mrs. T. E. Canfield left Sunday for Portland. She will remain there for 10 days before starting for Duluth, Minnesota, to visit an uncle for a few months.

Mrs. Amanda Washburn and children, who were visiting Mrs. Washburn's parents, W. E. Clark and wife, returned home to Springfield Monday.

W. E. Clark lost a fine calf Sunday from some unknown disease.

Mrs. S. Orr came up from Portland Friday to remain a few days with her family.

Frank Gibson and wife went to Salem Saturday, remaining over Sunday with his mother, leaving her somewhat improved.

The social dance here was pretty well attended and a good time was had.

J. W. Fetzer and wife, Mattie Koser and Stella Smith took in the campmeeting at Turner Sunday.

D. M. Calbreath, who was the republican nominee for county treasurer, has moved to an ideal home three and one-half miles west of Monmouth.

Oris Robertson, who has been in charge of one of Minor & Co.'s stores at Spray, Ore., has changed his location and is now living at Fossell, Ore.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.

...Dentist...

Painless Extraction Cooper Building, Independence, Ore. a Specialty.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,

Physician & Surgeon.

Office in Opera House building, Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.

E. T. HENKLE,

Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade,

Davidson & Hedges, Props.

CIGARS, Cigarettes, Tobaccos and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...

Monmouth Laundry

H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.

Should have your Work.

.....Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday.....

Work Guaranteed.

Monmouth, Oregon.

H. H. Jasperson,

UNDERTAKER,

Independence, : Oregon.

