

CALL AT

Pickel's Gallery

And see the finest assortment of samples you ever saw.

Everything New.

Social and Personal.

F. A. Douty was in Portland last week.

Camp stoves and tents at Frazer & Rice's.

Mrs. I. W. Dickinson is reported quite sick.

Go to R. M. Wade & Co for your bale ties.

Girl Wanted.—Inquire at ENTERPRISE office.

Fred Holman, of Falls City, was in town Sunday.

J. S. Bohannon came in from Newport Monday.

J. R. Cooper, of this place, was in Portland Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Wallace was at Newport over Sunday.

J. S. Bohannon joined his family at Newport Saturday.

Aure Ford, of Dallas, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Flyo Curo will keep the flies off your cow. Get it of Frazer & Rice.

Chas. Bilyeu leaves soon for Corvallis, where he has a position.

Mrs. T. D. Campbell and child were passengers to Newport Saturday.

P. G. Patterson, of Portland, spent a few days in the city this week.

Don't overlook the Buckeye washer. For sale at R. M. Wade & Co.

Rev. E. J. Thompson returned Friday from a short trip to the coast.

Dr. W. C. Brown went to Newport Saturday for a few days' outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Herren returned Saturday from a trip to Eastern Oregon.

Try our Deering machine oil you will find it A 1 at R. M. Wade & Co.

P. L. Campbell is in Ashland this week on business pertaining to the University.

Miss Francis Cooper was a passenger Friday to Seaside for a several days' outing.

Mrs. Woods, of North Independence, has been critically ill for several days past.

Miss Fay Richardson, formerly a milliner at Monmouth, left Saturday for Michigan.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.

The Misses Edith and Nola Owen left Saturday for Newport for a few weeks' outing.

When in town try Huntley's Restaurant for a first class meal. Special rates by the week.

Mrs. W. J. Tuck and baby left Saturday for Shedd's Station for a few days' visit with relatives.

A. E. Landwehr and family returned today after a 10 days outing at Newport and Nye Creek.

Miss Hattie Jones left Monday for Newport.

G. A. Wilcox and daughters are at Newport for a few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Crowley, of Monmouth, left Monday for Newport.

Flyo Curo protects the dumb brute from the flies. Get it of Frazer & Rice.

Prof. T. A. Hayes and family are camped at the Falls in Ashland creek canyon.—Ashland Tidings.

Frank Richardson spent a few days last week with his parents here, returning to Portland Friday.

Miss Amy Kelley, daughter of Rev. Kelly, is visiting at her grandparents in Portland for a few weeks.

The Misses Mollie Johnson and Gertrude Dickinson returned Monday from a two weeks' visit at the coast.

Mrs. E. Catron and child, of Eastern Oregon, are visiting at the home of Mrs. A. Catron, in Monmouth.

If you want a fine chicken dinner go to the Palace Hotel on Sunday. First-class bar in connection with the hotel.

I. M. Butler and family left for Sodaville, the scene of their annual outing. They will return in three or four week.

Morris Wiprut, of Salem, spent Saturday night in town, his son, Louie, driving home with him Sunday afternoon.

We will soon have in stock a well selected assortment of shot-guns at prices as low as the lowest. Frazer & Rice.

The Hero fanning mill does the best work, has the greatest capacity and is the lightest running. See it at Frazer & Rice's.

Mrs. J. E. Richardson, Jr., was a passenger to Portland Friday for a few days' visit with her mother, Mrs. J. R. N. Bell.

Pres. E. D. Ressler came down from Roseburg Saturday, where he had been attending teachers institute.—Eugene Register.

Asa Robinson, of Arlington, Eastern Oregon, came in Sunday afternoon and will be with his parents here for a short time.

If you want Men's or Boy's full stock Asbestos Calf Hand Made Shoes call on T. B. Clevenger, the Shoe Maker, Independence Ore.

Everybody likes good things to eat. Strong's Restaurant at Salem is the place to get them. Everything served in season. Right prices.

M. L. Dorris and wife leave today for McKenzie bridge. M. L. is on the sick list and the trip will benefit him.—Saturday's Eugene Register.

B. F. Mulkey left Monday for Ashland, where he will remain. He is highly impressed with Ashland and predicts a great future for the place.

The twentieth annual catalogue of the Monmouth State Normal has come to our desk. It contains much interesting data pertaining to the school.

The old bathing place at the head of the bar is regaining its popularity, and every day numbers may be seen wending their way thereto. Many ladies enjoy the sport.

Zadoc Riggs, of Salem, a former Polk county boy, has been appointed a member of the State Board of Pharmacy. His appointment is for a term of five years.

Miss Laura Chapman, who has been visiting friends here, left last week for Sherwood, for a brief visit before returning to her home in Eastern Washington.

The Spray Courier changed hands last week, Jesse M. Shelley turning the business over to David E. Baxter.—Ione Post. Jesse is a former Independence boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hays are in camp on the banks of the beautiful Willamette. They entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ed Herron, of Salem, Sunday.

No one to look at him would ever take Mr. Dickey, the wagon-maker, to have celebrated his 70th birthday last week. Physically he is where most men are at forty.

Mrs. John Jeffcott and six children, who have been visiting at the home of Rev. Kelley, returned to Portland Monday afternoon. Mrs. Jeffcott is a sister of Mrs. Kelley.

W. J. Kirkland came in Saturday from Arlington, Eastern Oregon, on a visit to his father, J. W. Kirkland, and other relatives. He is a former blacksmith of this city.

This is the time of year when a man should begin to think about his fences. If you need anything in this line hunt up the ad of J. E. Wilson in another column. It will interest you.

The boys of the town should not postpone the reorganization of the athletic club until too late in the fall. Go to work early, organize various teams and be ready for contests.

An error crept in last week's paper. Mrs. E. T. Henkle and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Barnett and Miss Bertha Osborne are spending their outing near Neskowan, Tillamook county.

Elders Goodwin and Allen, representatives of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, who have been holding meetings at the grove, left Friday for Albany.

Work has been stopped on the Big Polk and Marion county bridge at Salem. The contractor asserts that neither county has kept him supplied with material as fast as he could use it.

J. B. Scraftord, of Independence, and Mrs. E. E. Cummins, of Junction City, were united in marriage on Tuesday. They were in Albany yesterday on their way to Independence.—Albany Democrat.

Rev. Ray L. Farmer, who a year or so ago conducted meetings at Baptist church in this city, is now one of the most successful pastors in Chicago. A Chicago exchange speaks of him as the most eloquent pulpit orator in the "windy city."

J. K. P. Graves returned Friday from near Forest Grove, where he has been gathering chittim bark all summer. He has had under his employ upward of twenty men. When he weighed up last he found he had 51,337 pounds or a half-ton over two cars and a half of the product. He sold it at a good figure. Next year he will again engage in this industry, having a summer's gathering under contract already.

20 per cent! 20 per cent!

Off! Off! Off!

Our entire Carpet line, nothing reserved, From July 10 to Aug. 1st.

At which time we will take our annual invoice, and desire to reduce our stock. This is your opportunity. Remember the place.

The House Furnishing Co.,

308 Commercial St., Next door to P. O., SALEM, ORE. Stores at Salem and Albany.

President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, will be in Roseburg all day Friday and will be glad to meet all former students of the U. of O. and of course, all others who desire to take up the educational work in that institution.—Roseburg Review.

Prof. David Torbet has returned from Tillamook, where he has been lecturing on educational topics. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Vida.—Albany Herald. Miss Torbet was in the city over Thursday evening and stated that her father was to leave Monday for an extended visit in the East.

The representatives of the Salt Lake branch of the Church of Latter Day Saints held several meetings this week at the opera house. The purpose of the meeting was announced to be to refute the statements made by the elders of the other branch in regard to their church.

Forty-two from here availed themselves of the opportunity to visit Oregon's popular summer resort, Newport, Sunday. A six-coach train took the excursionists over and back. Up to this point the train was poorly patronaged, but from here on large crowds were picked up.

Rev. E. J. Thompson left Friday evening for Los Angeles, Cal., there to perform the very pleasant task of uniting in marriage on the 16th inst, his daughter, Miss Edith, to Mr. C. H. Roake. Miss Edith Thompson is a former resident of Independence, having spent last summer here with her father. Mr. Roake is a former student of the Oregon Agricultural College. He is now employed at a lucrative salary as an electrical engineer in one of the large institutions at Los Angeles. They will make Southern California their home. While there Rev. Thompson may supply one of the prominent pulpits during the month of August, as he has an urgent invitation to that effect extended to him. He will return to Independence by the 5th of September.

Miss Dorothy Cooper was a passenger to Portland and Vancouver Tuesday.

A letter received from Portland at this office from Rev. Thompson, previous to his departure for California, conveys the information that he will attend a meeting of the directors of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, in San Francisco, before returning home. He has been a member of the board of directors of the seminary for 10 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fennell are in camp on the Hays ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Bice spent Sunday at their camp.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.

...Dentist...

Painless Extraction Cooper Building, a Specialty. Independence, Ore.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,

Physician & Surgeon.

Office in Opera House building, Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9

N. L. BUTLER,

Attorney at Law.

Collections a specialty. Office at residence, north of Monmouth.

E. T. HENKLE,

Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade, Davidson & Hedges, Props.

CIGARS, CIGARETTES, TOBACCOS and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...

Monmouth Laundry

H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.

Should have your Work.

Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday.....

Work Guaranteed.

Monmouth, Oregon.

H. H. Jasperson,

UNDERTAKER,

Independence, Oregon.