

CALL AT

Pickel's Gallery

And see the finest assortment of samples you ever saw.

Everything New.

Social and Personal.

J. M. Mitchell has opened a feed store in town.

John Johnson came in Monday from Nelson, B. C.

Something new in Hop Baskets at R. M. Wade & Co.

Travis McDevitt, of Corvallis, was in the city Sunday.

Douty's store has a cart, buggy and a good horse for sale.

Clarence Ireland returned to Portland Sunday afternoon.

Twine for sewing burlap carried in the ball at R. M. Wade & Co.

Dallas has accepted the Gates' proposition for a waterworks system.

An elegant assortment of Shot Guns and Pistols at R. M. Wade & Co.

Mrs. J. W. Baldwin, of Eldon, Iowa, is visiting her brother, A. Nelson.

Mrs. Bowden, who has been at the coast several weeks, returned Friday.

W. G. Sharman and family returned last week from a month at the coast.

L. W. Robertson, of Portland, spent several days in this city the past week.

Mrs. M. L. Dorris, of Eugene, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hodges.

Harry Gaynor, one of Dallas' enterprising business men, was in town Sunday.

Boy Wanted.—Good smart boy wanted at the ENTERPRISE office. Inquire at once.

The Misses Mintie and Elva Taylor returned last week from a trip to Portland.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk or applied if desired.

Dr. W. R. Allin and Claude P. Fryer returned Saturday from a few days spent in Portland.

Mrs. J. S. Cooper returned Saturday from a several weeks' outing on the Sound and other points.

Harry Hanson, book-keeper for Booth-Kelley Co. at Coburg, is visiting the family of Al Herren.

Brady Burnett, of Corvallis, left this place this week for Washington, D. C., where he has employment.

Miss Garlin Hill left last week for Pomeroy, Wash., where she is assistant principal of the high school.

The restaurant is now located in more commodious quarters in the last building on the north side of C street.

Mr. Ireland, publisher of the Morrow Observer, is in the city moving the type and other paraphernalia belonging to the old West Side plant. He intends to establish another paper in Eastern Oregon.

Chrysolite, Enameled ware, Acid proof. Most serviceable and best finished Ware produced at R. M. Wade & Co.

Miss Camille Hutton left Saturday for Wardner, Idaho, where she goes to join her mother, whose home is there.

If you want a fine chicken dinner go to the Palace Hotel on Sunday. First-class bar in connection with the hotel.

For a limited time we will sell Cast Ranges and Cast Heaters for less than the wholesale price. R. M. Wade & Co.

L. Dickinson, who has been visiting his father, I. Dickinson, returned to his home at Seattle, Wash., Monday.

Frank Lucas left Friday afternoon for Walla Walla, Wash., where he is employed as solo cornetist through the fair season.

Miss Lottie Kelly, of Cowgill, Mo., and Mrs. John Bethel, of Higgins, Wash., visited the Misses Smith in Monmouth this week.

Mrs. M. Deaton and family, former residents of Independence, have moved to Vancouver, Wash., where they will reside permanently.

Everybody likes good things to eat. Strong's Restaurant at Salem is the place to get them. Everything served in season. Right prices.

Mrs. D. A. Young, after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. P. Graves, returned to her home at La Grande Saturday.

David Calbreath was a passenger to Portland Friday, where he went to meet his wife, who was returning from a summer's visit in Montana.

Messrs. T. D. Campbell, W. M. McCarty, Ed Owen and Johnnie Kirkland have gone to Klamath Falls to prove up on some fine timber claims.

Mrs. Henry Waller and daughter, Miss Louise, left Friday for Iowa for a few weeks' visit. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mr. Waller.

Mrs. G. O. Graves and children, of Portland, were incoming passengers Saturday morning for a short visit with old friends in Monmouth and Independence.

Mrs. Minnie E. Burnett and daughter, Erma, returned to Portland Sunday afternoon after a short visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Huntley.

Miss Mabel Cressy returned Friday from a summer's outing at Newport. She leaves the first of October for the Siletz, where she will spend the winter teaching.

W. H. Craven has in his employ an experienced saddler. His business now justifies a working force of three men, an excellent showing for a town the size of Independence.

Mr. Z. J. Beals, formerly of this city, but later of Prairie City, Eastern Oregon, was in town Saturday. He was in a very bad condition from a cancer. The physicians in Portland had informed him that an operation which would remove nearly the entire shoulder would have to be made, and even then permanent recovery could not be assured. He returned to Portland this week.

Two tin cups for 5 cents. Frazer & Rice.

G. L. Hawkins was a passenger to Toledo Tuesday.

Mrs. S. R. Withrow is dangerously ill with cancer.

Good organ for sale cheap by E. D. Parker, Independence.

Mr. Thrasher, of Corvallis, is clerking for E. E. Paddock.

Dr. O. D. Butler was a passenger to Portland Wednesday.

Hop Sacks for sale. Inquire of Archie Sloper, Independence, Or.

Miss Addie Fuller, a former Independence lady, visited here this week.

Miss Florence Waggoner was a passenger to McMinnville Wednesday for a few days' visit.

Miss Vena Goff left Wednesday for Great Falls, Mont., where she will teach this winter.

L. Damon has opened a feed, flour and commission store in the athletic building on Main street. Mr. J. M. Mitchell is the manager. See their ad.

Hon. T. L. Butler, of Ballston, an old pioneer of this county, died last week. He was county surveyor of Polk county for 20 years and was a member of the legislature. He was one of Polk's best known citizens.

A letter was received in town from E. C. Pentland, former publisher of the West Side. He is now in Crescent City, California, but thinks of coming to Portland, where he has a good position offered him on one of the daily papers there as solicitor.

J. M. Washell met with a most painful wound Monday. While operating a circular saw in the planing mill his little finger was completely severed. He stood the amputation without going under the influence of anesthetics, which demonstrates the grit that goes to make up Mr. Mitchell.

Miss Virginia Deaton, publisher of the Lone Post, is visiting friends in her old home town, Independence. Miss Deaton was a former employe of this office. Her adventure in Eastern Oregon journalism has been greeted with that success which ambition, ability and earnest endeavor should receive. The ENTERPRISE wishes her still greater prosperity.

The residence of J. L. Hanna, near the Christian church, was consumed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The fire originated from the sparks of a steam wood saw. Nothing of the contents was saved. The family were in the hop yards at the time. The insurance was $800.

The best

Alarm Clock

85c

85c

AT

O. A. Kramer & Co.'s.

Wagoner's Soda touches the thirsty spot, cools and refreshes you.

Harry E. Wagoner

STATIONER

STORES AT

Independence and Monmouth

Having secured control of the Normal Book Store at Monmouth we wish to call the attention of the people of Polk county that we are now in a position to serve them in the.....

Stationery and Confectionery

Lines better than ever before. With our two stores we can give you the choice of two stocks.

At Our Fountain

You will find the best of everything in the Soda line. Ice Cream in any quantity made from the pure cream.

Per gallon$1.25	Half gallon 75c
Quart 40c	Pint 20c

SPECIAL PRICES IN QUANTITIES.

Mrs. O. D. Ireland, after a short visit with relatives near Monmouth, returned to Portland last week.

W. P. Bevens, of Buena Vista, has the honor of bringing the first load of this year's crop of hops to the S. P. depot.

An excellent program is being prepared for the open air concert Saturday evening. A special motor will be run from Monmouth, returning at 9:30. A dance at the opera house will follow the concert. One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be present on the above occasion.

Grand Millinery Opening.

On September 19th and 20th I will have on exhibition the finest line of pattern hats ever brought to Polk county. Prices reasonable. Come and see for yourself.

MRS. M. W. WALLACE,
Independence Or.

BORN.

CRESSY.—At Dallas, on Tuesday, September 9, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. Cressy, a son.

MIX.—On Saturday, September 6, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. M. Mix, a daughter.

For Sale.

One good two-seated Hack.
One open single Buggy.
One 24-inch spring-tooth Harrow.
One new Garden Cultivator.
For Sale Cheap. Call at A. L. CHUTE'S, Monmouth, Or.

Hall's Ferry

Growing more popular every day because it is the shortest and only practical route to Salem. Safe and rapid service rendered by a skillful ferryman at all hours.

Round Trip on Rigs, 25c.
H. D. Pettyjohn, Prop.

H. H. Jaspersen,
UNDERTAKER,
Independence, : Oregon.

Farmers' Telephone Lines.

Farmers who want private telephone lines will find it to their advantage to call and see me. You can get telephone service at very reasonable rates. Investigate. It won't cost you anything.

Wm. B. Barnett,
Agent, Independence.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...

Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,
Physician & Surgeon

Office in Opera House building. Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.

N. L. BUTLER,
Attorney at Law.

Collections a specialty. Office at residence, north of Monmouth.

E. T. HENKLE,
Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

The Arcade,
Davidson & Hedges, Props.

CIGARS, CIGARETTES, TOBACCOES and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN IN CONNECTION.

...THE...

Monmouth Laundry

H. D. WHITMAN, Prop.

Should have your Work.

Washing called for and delivered, both in Dallas and Independence. Washing called for on Tuesday and delivered on Saturday.....

Work Guaranteed.
Monmouth, Oregon.