OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Fall Term Will Begin on September 29th.

The public schools of Independence will open on Monday, September 29th. The new school year promises to be a most prosperous one. There will be some changes made in the grades in order to give more time to recitations. A few grades and recitations could be dispensed with and those in authority feel that the additional time secured could be more profitably spent in necessary class work. The school building has been painted and thoroughly cleaned and presents a most pleasing appearance.

The new principal, Mr. Newbill, will be on hand to take charge. He will be assisted by the following teachers: C. D. Simpson, Iva Burton, Lettie Masterson, Vanche Dickinson, Adona Cochran, Nettie M. Burke and Mrs. Mary Tuck.
