A Pretty Wedding

Special from Buena Vista.

The marriage of Miss Elsie Lockhart, of Marion county, and Mr. Walter Davison, of Buena Vista, was solemnized at the M. E. church at this place Sunday forenoon. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Osborne, of Independence, and took place immediately after the church services. The edifice was filled to overflowing with spectators to witness the event.

The bride was prettily gowned in blue silk with white silk and applique trimmings. The bridesmaid was Miss Pearl Lockhart, who wore a white gown trimmed in blue. The groom was suitably attired in black, his groomsmen being Harry Davison.

The bride is an estimable young lady and respected by all who know her. Mr. Davison is a young man of good character, steady and industrious, and many friends of both join in congratulations and good wishes.

The newly wedded pair are to reside in Oregon City, where the groom has a cottage furnished and ready to receive his bride.

Miss Helen Cooper has been ill during the past week.

Students to the Normal are rolling in on every train, and there promises to be a much larger attendance than usual.

The band concert last Saturday evening contained some excellent numbers, but the crowd was much smaller than usual owing to the cool weather which prevailed.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodor's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 21, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

Attend the State Fair to be held at Salem September 15-20.

Take a few days after haying and harvesting and go away for a change of scene and air. Too few farmers and farmer's wives take any vacation during the year. There is nothing so good as a change of living and a few days' rest to brace one up, both physically and mentally. Most of the large city business houses give their employes one or two weeks' vacation during the year, and they find it pays well in the better health of their men and greater interest taken by them in their duties. A week's rest attending the state fair is both educational and recreative.

The exposition building will be filled with the finest exhibits of the farm, field and orchard. The livestock show will surpass anything of the kind ever given on the coast, and no progressive farmer can afford to miss seeing the possibilities of improved breeds and breeding.

Good racing every afternoon between the fleetest footed racers on the coast. Good music and high class entertainment in the evening.

Reduced rates will be made by the Southern Pacific for the occasion. Ask your agent for full information.

To make a long story short

These warm days we will not tell you of the beauty or fine finish of our laundry work, but just remind you that when you want that delicate colored negligee laundered that we will do it just like new without injury to color or fabric. Our work on linen collars and cuffs—Well! 'nuff said! Orders left at Kutch's barber shop on the Salem stage will receive prompt attention.
