HERO FANNING MILL

A few extracts from letters and some by-the-way remarks

Grantsburg, Wis., Dec. 14, 1901,
I believe it is to the interest of every farmer to have one of these mills as they are away head of the old style fanning mills. I have had both and found it so.

CHAS. CHRISTOPHERSON,

Webster, S. D.

I take pleasure in stating that the Hero Grain Separator bought from you is the best grain cleaner I ever saw. It does perfect work on all kinds of grain and seeds. Last fall I had a quantity of flax and German millet mixed. With the Hero I made a perfect separation. It is equally good on all combinations or mixtures of grain. For durability and strength it is a marvel. No farmer can afford to be without a Hero. ALFRED ERDMAN.
