Polk County at the Fair.

Mrs. F. A. Wolf, of Falls City, had the honor of arranging the exhibit of Polk county, and did it in a very tasteful way, and showing it to the great crowds of people who passed through the spacious pavillion, says the Rural Spirit. She deserves a great deal of credit for her energy, and was awarded third prize of $200. The wall was decorated with grains and grasses, which were of exceedingly good quality. In one corner was a pyramid of grasses, vegetables, etc. In another was a V of grains. On a table in the center of the display were placed the apples and fruit in their fresh state, while close to them were the canned fruits, which were very tempting and kept Mrs. Wolf busy looking after them. A table of flowers adds very much to the finish of the display. Many kinds of seeds were in glass dishes and showed what a large variety could be raised of the same cereal. Potatoes of many kinds all looked alike to an outsider, but there were about 60 varieties.

The total number of varieties of products on display was close onto 300.

Other awards were as follows:

C. D. Nairn, Ballston—grains and Collie dogs.

Wallace orchard, West Salem—pears.

J. H. Hawley, Monmouth—Lincoln sheep and Berkshire hogs.

T. W. Brunk, Eola—Poland China hogs and Cotswold sheep.

J. B. Stump, Monmouth—Cotswold sheep, Angora goats and wool.

F. A. Wolf, Falls City—grains and vegetables.

Wm. Riddell, Monmouth—goats.

Mrs. C. D. Nairn, Ballston—poultry.

Belle Wolf, Falls City—vegetables and grain.

F. A. Koser, Rickreall—hops.

Mrs. L. Whiteaker, Monmouth—geese and ducks.

News of the State Normal School.

Secretary J. B. V. Butler says the attendance at the Normal School still keeps up the rate of increase over last year. Fifteen new students entered Monday and others have sent notification of their coming soon. Among the new arrivals of this week are Mr. and Mrs. William Metzger, of Gresham. Mr. Metzger is a former student of five years ago.

The Ladies' Athletic Association organized last week with a good sized membership and is busily planning for the work of the year, basket ball being the principal game.

The Men's Athletic Association has also organized and its members are doing active work on the football field and in the gym.

Manager Roy Smith is passing a subscription paper about among the faculty, students and business men for the financial backing of the football team. There has been some talk of hiring a coach by the business men of Monmouth. This move, if successful, will bring great relief to Physical Director Forbes, whose classroom duties make it almost impossible to get out on the gridiron with the boys, except on Saturday. No games have been scheduled yet, though there has been some correspondence with other teams.

The Vespertine Literary Society gave a very interesting program last Friday evening. Among the features was a baritone solo by Mr. North. The Invincibles announce a special program for next Friday night, including a vocal duet by Miss Higgins and Mr. Ressler.

Some little annoyance has been experienced by the failure of the text books to arrive promptly. The cause is due partly to the fact that several of the books of the state series could not be obtained at the Depository in Portland.

The first senior rhetorical will be given on Thursday; the speakers are Harry Belt and Miss Overholtzer.

Professor Buckham will deliver the first faculty address on Friday morning. A change in the schedule has been made so that each member of the faculty lectures but once each semester.

Miss Grace Higgins, the new teacher of music and drawing, sang a solo at the Christian church last Sunday morning. Her voice is rich and powerful, and her enunciation so distinct that every word of the song could be understood. Her singing was most acceptable, and highly appreciated by all who were fortunate enough to be present.
