Buena Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hall and Miss Nettie Hall left for their Oregon City home Monday.

Don't forget it—hand your subscription to the local agent and get the news that interests you.

Ernest Cole made a business trip to Monmouth Monday.

Ideal weather prevails again since the recent rain and farmers are busy doing the odd jobs that are always to be done on a ranch in the autumn before plowing.

Claude Lee, of Junction City, visited relatives here this week.

Albert Davison made a business trip to Salem Monday.

Mrs. H. L. Hall returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives in Corvallis.

The Evangelical Aid ladies gave Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pagenkopf a pleasant surprise Monday evening at their home. About a dozen of the Aid members gathered in, bringing refreshments, and the evening proved most enjoyable to all.

New winter goods of all sorts are now to be found at Buena Vista's up-to-date stores, and the proprietors are kept busy waiting on customers early and late.

The first frost of the season struck these parts Sunday night, and the "old inhabitant" complained of rheumatic joints and numbed fingers as he ambled forth Monday morning.

A handsome new Hayes buggy was purchased this week by Harley Hall for his wife.

The Geigel sale last week was largely attended and everything sold well. A free lunch was served to about 250 hungry men, and is said to have been first-class and plentiful.

"Wash" Gibson, of Monmouth, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Glenn Goodman, Miss Bessie Butler and Helen Cooper are all improving from an attack of fever.
