

MEN'S SUITS...

In all the latest styles and in cuts suitable for tall men or stout men as well as those of average build.

HATS

Did you ever try to select a hat from two or three boxes that were pulled out from under the counter? Well, we don't show hats that way. Our fine big hat case presents nearly 500 hats in plain view at the same time. These are the samples from our big line, comprising all the new shapes in the Derby, Fedora, Tourist, Panama, and Pantourist styles.

Leading Clothing Store in the Willamette Valley
Largest stock of Clothing and Furnishings for men and boys to be found between Portland and Sacramento.

This Toad

Knows enough to jump at a Bargain.

Some People Don't.

Our store is full of bargains. We don't mean cheap stuff, not worth carrying home, but goods that give value received to the purchaser. Especially is this true of our

Blanket Department

Our Salem blankets are admitted to be the best made; no question about it. Then when one considers that we handle them direct from our own factory, eliminating the middle men, and freight charges to and from a wholesale house, it's easily seen that we have the inside track—no one can compete with us.

A Double Wedding.

An event of much interest in Polk county occurred near Albany last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. It was a double wedding at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. August Pagenkopf. The brides were Miss Della C. Pagenkopf and Miss Belle Pritchett, both of Buena Vista; the grooms, Gus Pagenkopf, of Buena Vista, and Will Morrison, of Pedee.

At the appointed hour the young couples entered the parlor and were met by Rev. Davis, of the Baptist church of Albany, who performed the ring ceremony in a very impressive manner.

The brides were lovely in gowns of white organdy, trimmed with ribbon, lace and insertion. Each carried a bouquet of white roses. The grooms were neatly attired in the usual black. After congratulations the merry company retired to the dining room where a delicious dinner was served. The newly married pairs left for Dallas in the afternoon for a brief sojourn.

Miss Pagenkopf is too well known in Polk county to need many words of commendation. Modest and womanly, a successful teacher and a good musician, she numbers her friends by the score wherever she goes. Miss Pritchett likewise is highly respected by all and a lady whose character would reflect credit on any man fortunate enough to win her. Of the grooms only good words can be spoken, and many friends of all parties join in good wishes and hearty congratulations.

The guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. August Pagenkopf, Misses Lena and Anna Pagenkopf, Pedee; Mrs. Ida Forbes, Montavilla, Or., and Rev. Davis of Albany.

Mr. Pagenkopf and bride are now "at home" to friends in Buena Vista, while Mr. Morrison and bride have taken up their residence on the groom's ranch in the Pedee valley.

G. L. Zumwalt, who operates the Imperial cafe, had his hands badly burned this week. The gasoline in his stove caught fire and in carrying it out he was so severely burned that he has no use of either hand at present.

America's Famous Beauties

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infalible for piles. 25c at Kirkland Drug Co.'s.
