A GERMAN CITIZEN

Speaks Gratefully of His Relief by Dr. Darrin.

To the Editor: For years past my health has been impaired from the effects of dyspepsia, heart and kidney disease, and pain in the stomach and back. I have tried many remedies and doctors to no use. I was troubled with diabetes—getting up nights to relieve my bladder. Have been under Dr. Darrin's treatment and pronounce myself restored to health. My wife has been successfully treated for liver and stomach trouble and pain in the side. Tell all your readers to consult me at Chemawa, Oregon, and I will explain how I was cured. I am a German, and will gladly tell my countrymen of my cure.

CHAS. ZIELENSKI.

Dairying and Silos.

That the dairy industry, with hog raising as a necessary and profitable side issue, is rapidly becoming the most paying mode of ranching, is a generally accepted fact.

There has been a marked increase in this line of farming in the vicinity of Buena Vista the past two or three years. Where then there were only a few farmers who had the temerity to venture into this new business, there are today dairy cows on half or two-thirds the ranches, and cream is sent to the creamery at Independence each day by Mr. Getty, who makes daily trips summer and winter. That the industry pays, all acknowledge. An ordinary milch cow will yield her owner from $3 to $6 per month in butter fat and he profit is easily reckoned. Not only this, but hogs are quickly fattened on the skimmed milk, and with porkers selling at from 5½ to 6½ cents per pound gross, hog raising is about as profitable as any one could wish it to be.

Silos are rapidly growing in popularity, the silage being considered superior to any other feed for winter use for dairy stock. George McLaughlin, near Buena Vista, who milks 20 dairy cows, has two large silos; Elmer Hall, with 10 head of cows, is filling a large silo at present; Mr. Getty has another, and others hereabouts are voted "just the thing."

Numerous ranchers in this locality declare that unless crops next year bring a much better price they shall bid farewell to wheat and oats and go into the dairy business or diversified farming in general.

School Opened Monday.

The Buena Vista public school opened Monday with a large enrollment and bright prospects for the year.

Under the able management of Prof. Murphy, an excellent tutor of many years' experience, the pupils in the higher branches will receive the same careful training that is given to scholars in much larger institutions, and a diploma earned in Buena Vista's little college may be displayed by the owner with honest pride.

Mrs. Murphy is to have charge of the lower room, which insures to the smaller pupils wise and prudent teaching and precept.

Many pupils are in attendance this term from outside districts—a fact which demonstrates the growing popularity of the school and its efficient instructors.

Buena Vista.

Cleve Prather leaves the last of this week for Salem, where he will enter the business college.

Shafe Kreutz is soon to move onto a place near Independence, where he will be boss of a large hop yard.

Gus Pagenkopf and bride were Independence visitors on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, of Wells, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Bertha Rowe has resumed her studies at the Normal at Monmouth.

We, the Buena Vista correspondent, wish to thank each and every one who in any manner aided us in winning first prize in the ENTERPRISE contest that closed last Saturday. In Mrs. Laura S. Webb.

Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

our feeble way we aim to give the neighborhood in general as many kind words as are its due; to tell the news as we learn it. If you, the readers, wish to see an item in print, hand it to us and we will cheerfully write it up. If you wish to advertise hand us your notice or tell us about it and we will give you rates for advertising, etc. If you are going to subscribe for the paper or renew your subscription, hand us the amount and give us the benefit of your name in our club. We will save you all bother and expense of money orner. In short, help us to get hold of the news and we will do our best to help build up the town and bring our community before the public as it deserves to be. Again we thank you for favors in the contest. The prize is a beauty and we are justly proud of it.

Pay Up.

All parties indebted to the undersigned will please call and settle, and oblige. Chute & Moore.
