HATS

Did you ever try to select a hat from two or three boxes that were pulled out from under the counter? Well, we don't show hats that way. Our fine big hat case presents nearly 500 hats in plain view at the same time. These are the samples from our big line, comprising all the new shapes in the Derby, Fedora, Tourist, Panama, and Pantourist styles.

Then when one considers that we handle them direct from our own factory, eliminating the middle men, and freight charges to and from a wholesale house, it's easily seen that we have the inside track—no one can compete with us.
