

THE OLD RELIABLE
ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
 Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Social and Personal.

Clarence Clodfelter is working at the Creamery.
 Hand Loaded Shells at R. M. Wade & Co.'s.
 Harry E. Wagoner is a Portland visitor this week.
 Clean French Cheat Seed for sale by Henry Hill.
 R. M. Wade & Co. are enclosing their machine shed.
 Frank Richardson came up from Portland Saturday.
 L. W. Robertson, of Portland, spent Saturday in town.
 Nice fresh Jersey Milk for sale. Inquire of W. G. Cressy.
 Miss Florence Wagoner spent Sunday and Monday in town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clodfelter, of Corvallis, spent Sunday in this city.

One second hand Buggy and Grain Drill for sale at R. M. Wade & Co.'s.
 F. H. Wakefield, of The Dalles, is here looking after property interests.
 Frank Bruce left today for Winlock, Wash., where he will work this winter.
 J. H. Larsen, of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting at the home of W. B. Petseys.
 A. P. Starr, of Bellfontain, Or., was a business visitor to Independence, yesterday.
 R. M. Wade & Co. are still selling Cast Ranges and Cast Heaters at wholesale prices.

Harry DeBorde left Saturday for Corvallis, where he has employment for the winter.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk, or applied if desired.
 When in Salem visit Strong's Restaurant. It is headquarters for Independence people.

Position wanted—Young woman wants position to do housework. Address B., ENTERPRISE office.

Get a Mount Hood Fanning Mill; a first-class mill in every particular. For sale by R. M. Wade & Co.

The best Photographs in Oregon
Pickel's Gallery
 He is sure to please you. Prices low as possible for Good Work.

Glenn Goodman is improving so rapidly that he will be permitted to be out in a few days.

F. A. Patterson is still quite ill at home in this city. A trained nurse has been called in.

Clyde Hill is here from Bly, Klamath county. He has been locating people on timber claims.

Mr. Co-grove, who has been here several months, left Wednesday for his home at Centerville, Iowa.

Mrs. J. E. Hubbard and son Claud returned Monday from a several weeks' visit at The Dalles.

Willie Cackle and Orphia Sloper were married at the home of the bride's parents, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Edna Burnett has a badly sprained ankle, which will necessitate her being indoors for several days.

If you want a good square meal served in real family style, call at City Restaurant on C street. Prices right.

The best extracts, spices and teas come from Jones Paddock Co. Ask your grocer for them, no other as good.

Several students from the Agricultural College attended the funeral of Floyd Mix, returning to Corvallis Monday.

If you want a fine chicken dinner go to the Palace Hotel on Sunday First-class bar in connection with the hotel.

J. C. Richards writes from Roseburg that he is highly impressed with that section and will move his family there soon.

Ex-Sheriff Sheriff J. G. Van Orsdel was over from Dallas Wednesday. He is engaged in the real estate business there.

A key with a black ribbon attached was picked up in front of the Star Grocery. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

J. L. Hanna has purchased the house three doors west of the Presbyterian church and will move it to his place near the school house.

If my ad don't interest you this week then we do not believe you are looking for bargains. Read it on the local page. Harry E. Wagoner.

To make a good cup of coffee you must have a good brand. Jones Paddock Co. roasts are the best. Ask your grocer for them and take no other.

James Collins has been quite ill at Walla Walla, Wash., with typhoid fever. He is improving nicely. At present he is engaged at milling there.

S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, is making some very tempting inducements to the trade in his special sales. Opportunities you cannot afford to miss.

A fine specimen of the cougar was shipped from here Monday to the Zoological Garden at Washington, D. C. It was captured when a baby by a man at Falls City.

Why wouldn't it pay for a wire fence factory to locate in Independence? There is any quantity of wire fence shipped in and why couldn't it be manufactured here?

James Collins, returned Tuesday from Walla Walla, Wash., where he has been this summer. He is just recovering from a siege of typhoid fever.

Money at present is of more value than goods at our store. Prices that surely talk.

Notice our Window...

We have just received 1000 pounds of the finest candies that was ever brought to the city. This is without doubt more candy than will be purchased by the entire town in the next three months, outside of ourselves, and we have already begun to make inroads on it that would look like more candy would be needed soon. Our new taffies and chocolates now in.

In box stationery we have made the best purchase it has been our lot to make for many a day. Your choice of the above goods for only 20 cents per box of 25 envelopes and 25 sheets of paper.

Special Prices

Envelopes. We have by far the largest stock of these goods ever brought to the city. In fact we have more than we want to carry and to reduce this stock of 10,000 envelopes we make the following prices: Two bunches for 5 cents, 20 cents per box of 250. No more for these prices.

We have a few odds and ends to close out. One 28 gallon whiskey barrel, the very best, 75c. 3 candy buckets, 15c each. 2 Star tobacco cutters, $1.25 each. Pair of the best bean candy scales on the market, $1.50.

Prices that are Prices...

Besides the above you should notice our show window. We have decided to change the nature of our stock to a degree and we do not want these goods. We need the goods awfully bad, and as far as profits are concerned we don't care.

Desk Letter Basket...

Has nice rubber feet to keep from scratching desk. Regular price 60c. Our price 40c. Only two on hand. 20c each.

Shelf Paper

While our present supply last which consists of 25 bunches 30 feet each, only 3 cents per bunch.

Parlor Matches.

A fine match, everyone strikes Great, big red-headed "fellers." 100 matches in a nice box for only 1 cent.

Everything for the School kept in stock at the most reasonable prices.

Harry E. Wagoner
STATIONER

Independence Oregon

J. P. Irvine, who has been looking about Portland for some time, has, in connection with his sons, Clarence and Jesse, purchased a grocery store at 363 Morrison street.—Yamhill Reporter.

John Young, who lives north of town about four miles, is a producer of as fine grapes as are raised in Oregon. A few samples brought to this office yesterday would compare favorably with the California product.

Sunday school at 10 and preaching at 11 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6.30, Mrs. Boydston, leader. Preaching at 7.30 p. m. at the United Evangelical church next Sunday.

Douty's Special Sale
 Lasts the following days yet:
 Friday, October 24th. Underwear, Groceries, etc.
 Saturday, October 25th. Table Linens, Ribbons, Corsets, etc.
 Monday, October 27th. Rubber Goods, Umbrellas, Rain Coats, etc.
 Tuesday, October 28th. Men and Boys' Overcoats, Ladies' and Childrens' Capes and Jackets, Furs, etc.
 Wednesday, October 29th. Shoes of all descriptions, Groceries, etc.
 Every day we are giving exceptional good bargains, come in and see.

The champion lady cake walker of the world will appear with the Alabama Warblers tonight. Her act alone is worth the price of admission.

Special sales. This week it is Capes, Jackets and Clothing. Next week, Shoes, Machintoshes and more to follow the next week also. Are you taking advantage of our special sales? If not you don't know what bargains you are missing. S. M. DANIEL, Monmouth.

The Alabama Warblers, headed by the great McKanlan, will give a first-class show tonight in a tent near the First National Bank. There are fourteen colored men in the company.

A. Nelson and wife left Tuesday for a protracted visit in the East. They will stop at many points before arriving at their destination in Iowa. This trip will consume several weeks.

The Georgia Harper Co. played to a good house on Tuesday evening, notwithstanding the fact that they were billed to appear at the opera house on Friday the 17th, but sickness prevented the filling of the earlier date. The company presented "Way Back East" in a manner that was thoroughly appreciated by the audience. The interests was sustained from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The specialties between the acts were repeatedly enquired. We can assure the company of a big house next time it visits us.

Saturday, October 25th
 Our baker will give a demonstration on this day of our teas, coffees, cocoas, etc., which will be served free with an assortment of delicacies of his own manufacture. The service will be from noon until 4 o'clock P. M. All are invited to call and sample something good. No children served unless accompanied by their parents.

Usual services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
 ...Dentist...
 Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.
E. T. HENKLE,
Bath and Barber Shop.
 MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.
OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,
Physician & Surgeon
 Office in Opera House building, Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9.
J. S. MOORE,
Tonsorial Artist.
 Only first-class workmen employed in the "Wigwam." Shop situated on North side of C Street.