Boy Wanted.

Douty wants a good boy of about sixteen to learn the bakery business under one of the best bakers on the coast. Boys using tobacco need not apply.

Money at present is of more value than goods at our store. Prices that surely talk.

Notice our Window...

We have just received 1000 pounds of the finest candles that was ever brought to the city. This is without doubt more candy than will be purchased by the entire town in the next three months, outside of ourselves, and we have already begun to make inroads on it that would look like more candy would be needed soon. Our new taffies and chocolates now in.

In box stationery we have made the best purchase it has been our lot to make for many a day. Your choice of the above goods for only 20 cents per box of 25 envelopes and 25 sheets of paper.

Special Prices

Envelopes. We have by far the largest stock of these goods ever brought to the city. In fact we have more than we want to carry and to reduce this stock of 10,000 envelopes we make the following prices: Two bunches for 5 cents, 20 cents per box of 250. No more for these prices.

We have a few odds and ends to close out. One 25 gallon whiskey barrel, the very best, 75c. 3 candy buckets, 15c each. 2 Star tobacco cutters, $1.25 each. Pair of the best bean candy scales on the market, $1.50.

Prices that are Prices...

Besides the above you should notice our show window. We have decided to change the nature of our stock to a degree and we do not want these goods. We need the money awfully bad, and as far as profits are concerned we don't care.

Desk Letter Basket...

Has nice rubber feet to keep from scratching desk. Regular price 60c. Our price 40c. Only two on hand. 20c each.

Shelf Paper

While our present supply last which consists of 25 bunches 30 feet each, only 3 cents per bunch.

Parlor Matches.

A fine match, everyone strikes Great, big red-headed "fellers." 100 matches in a nice box for only 1 cent.

Everything for the School kept in stock at the most reasonable prices.

Independence Oregon

Her lighter-soubrette parts in her other plays were rendered in a charming manner and seemed to please the majority of the people here better even than her more pretensions roles.
