Calvary.

Let every one who is interested in a Sunday school at Highland be at the school house next Sunday at 10.30 A. M.

Rev. W. R. Briscoe held services at the Highland school house four evenings of last week.

The workmen have finished repairing the Helmick bridge.

Miss Fannie Helmick is attending the Normal at Monmouth this winter.

Miss Ruth Cauthorn is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Evans.

Miss Dora Hamann came up from Portland, last week.

The David Parker heirs are having a fine monument and corner stones put up to their parents graves.

The Highland school was dismissed Monday, owing to the funeral of little May Hamann.

Buena Vista.

Oct. 30, 1902.

Harry Squires is to leave shortly for England and South Africa. In England he will visit his parents, whom he has not seen for 18 years and in South Africa a brother will be visited. Mr. Squires will be absent six months.

Charles Moore leaves in a few days for the Santiam, where he will spend the winter logging.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pagenkopf were business visitors in Albany, Saturday, where they purchased a new housekeeping outfit.

Miss Mattie J. Lee was a visitor last week, of Independence relatives.

Farmers are busy plowing, having become weary of waiting for rain.

Government officials in charge of such matters were in Buena, Tuesday seeking to secure rock for the revetment work that is to be done along the Willamette near here this winter.

Miss Ona Emmons is attending school in Salem this fall.

Cleve Prather, who is a student of the Salem business college, visited his parents here over Sunday.

The mail hack run by Bryan Nixon between Buena and Parker continues to do a thriving business. Much freight is handled each week and passengers come and go almost daily.

Buena Vista.

Bryan Nixon has leased the Wintermantle hop yard just beyond the Willamette in Marion county and will operate it next year. The rental is to be cash.

Sam H. Baldwin and wife were in Buena Saturday, returning to their home near Independence the same evening.

Parker, where he will be engaged this winter in logging. He was accompanied by his cousin.

Farming is progressing rapidly since the recent heavy rains. The ground is in fine condition.

Miss M. J. Lee returned Tuesday from a brief visit in Independence.

A business visitor in this place Tuesday was A. Johnson, formerly of Buena but now of Monmouth.

The "clang-clang" of the school bell is a welcome sound, these uneventful days and the large attendance at Buena's little academy this fall is most gratifying.

Some much-needed work is being done this week on the roads in this vicinity. A number of teams and men are engaged in hauling gravel, making ditches, etc. The work is under the supervision of Supervisor Elmer Hall, which is guaranty of a good job.

The Molat hop yard, two miles from Buena, across the river, has been rented for next year by Robert Emmons.

Henry Knighton and family now occupy the Miss Lee residence north of the Evangelical church.

During the recent rains the Willamette rose five feet, at this place but it is rapidly falling again, at this writing.

There was a meeting of the M. E. Aid Society, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Baldwin.
