

THE OLD RELIABLE

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
 Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Business Locals

Our Christmas stock will arrive soon. Wagoner's.

A pair of *5* Shoes will suit you. The Raket Stor.

Special bargains in Pocket Cutlery at R. M. Wade & Co.

50 head or less of Cotswold Ewes to let. Apply to J. A. Grigsby.

Yellow tablets for examinations, 8c two for 15c. The Raket Stor.

Our big line of Chocolates are now very complete at Wagoner's.

Call on J. S. Moore for Herpicide the dandruff cure. Sold in bulk or applied if desired.

When in Salem visit Strong's Restaurant. It is headquarters for Independence people.

We have some of the neatest box paper that you can find 10c to 19c. The Raket Stor.

Fresh salted peanuts at Wagoner's. All Home made.

Better notice our big bargains in Tobacco in our north window. They are not lasting long. Wagoner's.

If you want a good square meal served in real family style, call at City Restaurant on C street. Prices right.

R. M. Wade & Co. have on display a nice line of Nickle and Silver Ware. Examine the goods and get their prices.

Read S. M. Daniel's ad in this paper and learn all about the bargains he is offering in Clothing, Jackets and Mackintoshes

For the next thirty days we will give special discount on shot guns. Call while the stock is complete.

R. M. WADE & Co.

The Palace Hotel keeps growing in public favor right along. First class meals at reasonable rates is what is doing it.

We will be with you on holiday goods and show the nicest line of toys, games, dolls and fancy goods hat we ever had. The Raket Stor.

S. M. Daniel, Monmouth, is making a big run on Clothing Ladies Jackets, Mackintoshes and Overcoats. The bargains he is giving is the cause of it all. Don't fail to read the bargains he offers in his ad in this paper.

Calendars Calendar.

Yes, calendars for 1903. You can get them with your own picture on them at PICKEL'S GALLERY. Nothing will be nicer to send to your friends for a New Year's present.

Social and Personal.

Ora Clodfelter visited Salem this week.

Miss Edna Burnett visited Salem Saturday.

Miss Florence Wagoner visited Salem, Monday.

Dr. Thompson was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Miss Lola Herren was a Salem visitor Saturday.

James Collins was an incoming passenger Tuesday.

The motor now gets in from Dallas at 8:15 P. M.

Clinton Moore is clerking in Wagoner's Confectionery store.

Miss Mitchell, of McMinnville, is visiting the family of T. L. Hartman.

Miss Ada Morgan, of Salem, visited friends in this vicinity this week.

Mrs. Mulkey, of Philomath, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Fennell.

Mr. McCarty, a former resident of this city, visited here from Portland this week.

Mrs. Todd, the restaurant lady, returned from a visit to Salem Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miller were incoming passengers on the boat Monday evening.

Floyd Gray from Vancouver, Wash., was a guest of W. B. Petteys last Thursday.

Rev. E. J. Thompson delivered the Thanksgiving sermon at the Normal chapel this morning.

The Misses Clarice and Laura Brown, of Dallas, visited with Geo. Conkey and wife last Sunday.

A turkey shooting match was held on Henry Hill's place, south of the depot yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Burrus Estes, Mrs. W. W. Percival, Mrs. J. S. Cooper and others were Salem visitors Monday.

Joseph Stansbury is here from Eastern Oregon, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stansbury.

Mrs. Chas. Allen, of Salem, spent several days the past week visiting friends here, returning home Monday.

Roy Irvine came in from Lebanon last week. He has been sick and will not return to Lebanon until he is better.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6.30, Mrs. Boydston, leader. Preaching at 7.30 at the United Evangelical church next Sunday.

The telephone office is to be moved to the building now occupied by Mrs. Barnett's dress-making parlors. Mrs. Barnett will occupy the rear rooms of the building.

Hugh Shelley was a passenger to Portland for a few days' visit, after which he will go to Hood River for a few days, returning to Independence the first of the coming week.

Mrs. D. M. Caldwell was in Monmouth last week called by the serious illness of Dr. D. M. Doty. The patient has since recovered—McMinnville Reporter.

See Our Christmas Goods

Among the new arrivals in late copy-right books now have in stock you will find the Mississippi Bubble one of the leading books of the day. All the leading new books now on hand. Remember our price for the regular $1.50 book is but $1.35.

A fine paper Napkin for 20 cents per 100.

Our Holiday Goods are arriving daily. They will soon be exhibited.

Harry & Wagoner
 STATIONERS

Holiday Books Now in Stock

Also Albums, Purses, etc. Our full line is expected any time, when we will show you a full line of . . .

Christmas Novelties

All the latest Books now in

Our stock of playing cards was never so complete as it is at the present time.
 Bicycle cards . . . 25c per deck
 Mascot . . . . . 25c per deck
 Whist . . . . . 35c per deck
 Extra fine card . . . 50c per deck
 Oregon Scenic cards $1 a deck

See our line of ladies purses—several new designs just in.

Mrs. E. M. Young and son Arnold were able to sit up Sunday for the first time since they contracted typhoid fever. Mrs. Young has been bedfast for exactly fifty days.

Mrs. Kate Sharp died at her home in Missouri recently. She was a former school girl of this city, her maiden name being Miss Kate Clodfelter. Ora and Clarence Clodfelter are her brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Strong, of Centralia, Wash. were visiting with Mrs. Strong's parents, I. Connett, a few days' last week. Mr. Strong returned home Tuesday. Mr. Strong will remain a few weeks.

Miss Leona Ryan and Miss Grace Damon, two of Salem's popular telephone young ladies, were in the city last Friday evening and incidentally attended the dancing party at the Opera house.

Two telephone solicitors have been in this field endeavoring to secure a sufficient number for an all night service. Several new 'phones have been secured, but not a sufficient number to justify the change to a continuous service.

The band concert last Friday evening was a pronounced success. Every number was greatly enjoyed by the audience present which manifested its appreciation by repeated rounds of applause. The concert was followed by a dance both were well patronized.

Our stock of Clothing, Overcoats, Jackets and Mackintoshes is going lively at sacrifice prices we are making. But we still have several good things left. S. M. Daniel, Monmouth.

Glenn Goodman still improves.

Hon. I. L. Patterson, of Portland was a visitor in Independence Tuesday.

Miss Patience Cooper returned Monday evening from a several weeks' visit in San Francisco.

E. W. Cooper visited Grants Pass last week, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, of Dallas, were incoming passengers from Portland one day last week.

L. Damon was a passenger to Salem Monday morning.

J. A. Veness formerly a business man of this city, was here Monday.

Services at the M. E. church south by the Brethren or Dunkards next Sunday evening by Elds. Carl and Bonewitz of Newberg, the latter lately from Alaska. All are invited.

The new church building of the First Presbyterian church of Aberdeen, Wash., was formally dedicated last week by Dr. Thompson, of Independence. The sermon preached by Dr. Thompson was highly complimented by the Press, of Aberdeen, Wash.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are preparing a "Handkerchief sale." More extended notice will appear later.

The Chrysanthemum Fair passed off very pleasantly and financially profitable to its promoters. Excellent literary and musical programs were rendered both evenings. Good attendance was in evidence each evening.

Preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. and also the 1st Sunday in Dec. at the same hour, by pastor. He will preach in the evening of both these days at Monmouth. A cordial welcome is extended to all our services.

The boys of Independence and Monmouth played their return game at Independence on Thanksgiving. The score was 21 to nothing in favor of Independence. The bright particular star of the game was Paul Rusk, the Independence fullback.

6 to 0 was the score of the football game between the Willamette University and the Monmouth Normal on Thanksgiving. Although defeated Monmouth put up a good game and several times made long runs that took the ball dangerously near their opponents' goal. At the start Willamette made such headway at first that the Normal boys began to weaken, but they soon took a brace and held their own.

The W. R. C. Thanksgiving dance draw a large crowd. Everybody had a good time and the ladies of the corps express themselves as well satisfied with the receipts.

Mrs. H. H. Wagoner returned Saturday from Centerville, Iowa, where she had been at the bedside of her parents. While there her mother passed away.

Jesse Simpson, of the Simpson book store at Monmouth, is a Portland visitor this week.

For Sale.

A stock of general mdse with store buildings and residence in the country; stock will invoice about $2500. Address "J." care ENTERPRISE office.

The Honor Declined.

I hereby respectfully decline the honor conferred upon me by the Civic Improvement mass meeting held on Tuesday evening in giving me the nomination for the office of City Treasurer. C. W. JAVINE.

Purse Lost.

Mrs. Sarah McQuerry lost a red colored purse containing two $20 gold pieces, one ten dollar gold piece. A suitable reward will be paid by return of same to D. W. Sears.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
 ...Dentist...

Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

E. T. HENKLE,

Bath and Barber Shop.

MAIN STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

OTIS D. BUTLER, M. D.,

Physician & Surgeon

Office in Opera House building. Residence Phone 5. Office Phone 9

J. S. MOORE,

Tonsorial Artist.

Only first-class workmen employed in the "Wigwam." Shop situated on North side of C Street.