William Steel has improved his dwelling by the addition of new porches, roof repairs and other work.

William Percival, a well known stockbuyer, was in this locality last week, offering 54c gross for hogs. He purchased a number hereabouts.

Mrs. Lillie Nixon picked hops last fall and bought a cow with her earnings. There was a sack of chop in the barn last Sunday night when Mrs. Nixon retired. It was not there Monday morning, but instead there was a dead cow. The owner returned a verdict of suicide by gluttony.

T. P. Oglesby and family return-

NOTICE.

I have purchased the Wood Saw and Chopper formerly run by Mr. Baker of this place, and will continue to run the same at the regular prices. The Chopper is now in the old building just north of Asa Taylor's Livey Barn, where I will do Chopping each Saturday or oftener if necessary. Please give me a share of your patronage.

Plowing, seeding and other work on the farm is being prosecuted with great vigor since the "cold snap" set in.

Sportsmen talk of a proposed law which, if passed, will prohibit the use of repeating shot guns, it being claimed that an expert can exterminate a whole flock of birds with such a fire arm, before any can escape. Buena sportsmen feel no uneasiness as no one could be so rash as to accuse them of such a deed! Ducks and geese are plentiful hereabouts.

Remember the regular church services Sunday.
