

County Correspondence.

Buena Vista.

Miss Bertha Rowe, one of Buena's most promising young ladies, spent Thanksgiving with her parents here. Miss Rowe is a student of Monmouth Normal. She returned to school Sunday.

A hack load of Buena sportsmen attended the shooting match at Suver, the day before Thanksgiving and report a good time.

W. W. Percival, of Independence was a business visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. F. A. Douty returned to her Independence home, Saturday.

Newspaper correspondents are not infallible; they do not manufacture items; they are dependent, in a great measure, on the veracity of others; they do not purposely make themselves nor other people ridiculous. If errors occasionally creep into the newspaper, blame should fall on the parties who circulate false rumors. The correspondent, as stated, is only human, but he aims to be accurate and truthful.

Elmer Hall and Gus Pagenkopf did road work, Tuesday, the former in Buena and the latter out towards Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. James Couza were Independence visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hall, of Wells visited relatives here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Butter is very scarce in these parts at 30c per lb.

Frazer & Rice,

HARDWARE MERCHANTS.

Mrs. Johnny McClain has been seriously ill this week. Dr. Ketchum has been in attendance.

Perhaps the worst storm that has struck these parts this season, prevailed Sunday afternoon. The wind and rain beat with fury, and few travelers were abroad.

Cleve Prather, who is a student of the Salem business college, has been visiting at home the past two weeks.

The modern Golden Rule: "Do others or they'll do you!"

Miss Tillie Steele visited friends at Parker Saturday.

There is a fine new air tight heater in service in the M. E. church.

"Shafe" Kreutz was up from Independence Saturday on business interest.

The birth of a daughter, one day last week, to Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McLaughlin, is reported.

Logging on the Luckiamute began last week. Newt and Jim Prather are in charge of the job.

Several nights, of late, the steamer Pomona has tied up at points this side of Corvallis, being unable to reach that place because of the fog.

The opinion among farmers hereabouts is that seeding for this fall is at an end. The heavy rains this week will render the ground too soft for working and not much good weather can be expected now.

The ferry boat sunk last week has not been raised. Investigation has proven that the damage to ferry are so great that a new boat will probably have to be placed on the route.
