

County Correspondence.

Buena Vista

Miss Flora Jones, formerly of Buena and well known in Polk county is in Merced, California, visiting her parents. In January she begins a term of school at Olex Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baldwin, formerly of this place, write from their new home in Albion, Wash., under date of Nov. 25, that a snow storm was in progress there, also that business in the drug store is excellent and steadily increasing. They are well pleased with their change of location.

Have you seen them? What? Why, those beautiful Art Calendars that are given free with each yearly subscription to the ENTERPRISE. If not, lose no time in calling on your local correspondent and renewing or subscribing for the paper, while the prizes last Samples are to be seen for the asking. Hurry, hurry.

Ed Wilson went to Wells, Wednesday to visit relatives.

The dime social, announced to be given by the M. E. Aid Society last week, has been postponed. The date will be given out later on.

There was no school in Prof. Murph's room, Monday, he being called to Dallas, to act as a juror.

The ladies of the M. E. Aid Society, of Buena Vista, are hustlers. During the past year they have turned $154 into the church funds, at present they have several quilts on hand for sale, besides other articles, and each Friday a meeting is held and much work accomplished for the good of the cause. This speaks well for a small village like Buena.

Mr. and Mrs. Ament Gobat, rejoice over the arrival of a fine girl baby that came to their home Monday.

Hugh Baldwin, who went to Chicago last spring to accept an excellent position with a lumber company, writes his mother in Buena Vista that his wife and children are homesick to get back to Oregon and that he expects to return and start in business for himself on the coast. Hugh is one of Polk's most excellent sons and his decision will be gladly received here.

Another former Buena Vistaite heard from this week, is Mrs. Margaret Hall, of Moscow, Idaho, who visited Polk county last spring. Mrs. Hall is domiciled in a new residence in Moscow, where she is educating her grandson, Clyde Hall. Mrs. Hall is the owner of a fine ranch in this locality.

The schedule for the Normal basket ball team is as follows: Dallas college, January 9th; Albany college, January 16th; Pacific college, January 23; McMinnville college, January 30.
