DIED.

KIBBEY.—Mrs. Mary E. Kibbey, at the home of Henry Hill, in Independence, Oregon, on December 11, 1902, aged 63 years and five months.

The funeral services were held in the United Evangelical church, Rev. B. J. Kelley officiating. Interment was had in the Burch cemetery near Dixie.

Mrs. Kibbey came to Oregon with her people in the year 1847 as Mary E. Virgin. In 1856 she was married to T. W. Kibbey. They made their home in Polk county, west of Monmouth, where she resided until the condition of her failing health made it necessary to have her where she could receive prompt medical aid. For this purpose she was brought to the home of Mr. Hill last summer. She gradually declined until death ended all earthly suffering. Her husband, two sons and one daughter preceded her in death. Four sons and four daughters remain to mourn her loss.

Let This Be a Warning.

A man who was too stingy to take his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor, says the Kingston Leader. In his haste the boy ran over a $4.00 hive of bees and in ten minutes he looked like a warty squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed wire fence, cut a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruined a $5 pair of pants. The cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into a corn field and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket the wife ran, upset a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning them. In her hurry she lost a set of teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the cream and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens and the calves got into the yard and chewed the tails of four night shirts and several other articles of the family washing.

The man could have had a paper of his own for $1.50 and saved all the trouble and expense.

Now this didn't all happen here but it is liable to, so we advise everybody to take the ENTERPRISE and make your wife and family happy. Local agents are ready to take your order.

Buena Vista Correspondence.

The articles on strawberry culture, by Colonel E. Hofer, of Salem, which recently appeared in the ENTERPRISE, were read with much interest by people in this locality and were considerably discussed.

For the benefit of interested parties, will Col. Hofer kindly inform the ENTERPRISE how many strawberry plants are required to the acre, or to a given space by which an estimate can be made? Also the two varieties that are most satisfactory for market, when one desires berries both early and late. Such information will be much appreciated if the editor will kindly give it space. [Colonel Hofer stands ready at any and all times to answer questions on strawberry culture. He even went so far as to promise the editor of the ENTERPRISE that he would come here and address a meeting gotten up for the purpose of encouraging the industry. The colonel is all right. Just give him a chance to explain personally what he has accomplished.—Ed.]
