

Town Happenings.

A Pleasant Party.

The party given by Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson for the young people New Year's eve was a social triumph. The rooms had been decorated with ivy, mistletoe and many pretty plants and the pretty gowns worn by the number of pretty girls present added a charm to the occasion. A bountiful dinner was served early in the evening. The table decorations were pretty and when lighted up presented an artistic as well as an appetizing appearance. After dinner games, cards, etc. helped to make the Old Year pass merrily. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the evening and the gaily showed no signs of diminishing from the first moment to the last. Mrs. Dickinson proved an ideal hostess, and together with Mr. Dickinson derived much pleasure from the delight which she saw her guests were experiencing.

Those present were Rev. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickinson, Mabel Wells, (Portland) Mrs. Wrengle, (South Dakota) Miss Torbet (Albany) Mrs. Miller, Miss Magford, Miss McCalister, Miss Ferry, Hattie Goff, Elva Taylor, Bertha Bohannon, Hattie Emerson, May Irvine, Mollie Johnson, Kate Ketchum, Lulu Robertson, Mamie and Mabel Bateman, Mary and Rose Clodfelter, Claude Hubbard, Ross Nelson, Chas. Collins, Dr. Brown, Mr. Jacobson, Dee Taylor, Roy Hawkins, Mr. Vickers, Rube Dickinson, Tom Fitchard, Ernest Johnson, Frank Masterson, Glen Goodman, Frank Whiteaker and Louis Wiprut.

ANCHOR FENCE

Every farmer must sooner or later consider the fence question, and they can not be too careful in selecting an article of so much importance. We have the agency for the ANCHOR FENCE, an all large wire fence, which has been found to be the fence that gives the best results, as each wire must last as long as any other. All should be large and strong enough to last a life time. If you are interested in the fence question, we ask you to call and see us. It will pay you.

SPECIAL Inventory Sale!

At the Buena Vista CASH STORE

Beginning Thursday, Jan. 1, 1903,

Every article in our store, excepting Groceries and Hardware will be sold during this sale at

Greatly Reduced Prices

We want to reduce our stock as much as possible before taking our annual inventory. Our manager, Mr. Cole, wants to be kept busy during the dull season. We don't want to carry any winter goods over through the dull season, but do want them out of the way of our new spring stock when it arrives.

Money saver for all

We are very grateful to the people of Buena Vista and vicinity for the liberal patronage we have received and we will try to make this sale a money saving opportunity for all, and hope it may meet the approval of our many customers and be appreciated by the generous public.

Sale to Continue until Further Notice is Given.

The prices named in our Monmouth circulars and ad on another page of the Enterprise will apply at Buena Vista also. Read both ads carefully.

Swallowed Carbolic Acid.

Special from Calvary.

Little Alta Bennett, who swallowed carbolic acid last Wednesday, died Thursday, at the beginning of the year leaving this world for a life among the bright jewels above.

The funeral was conducted at the home Saturday by Rev. E. J. Thompson, of Independence, and the little one was laid to rest in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Alta was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett. She was two years of age.

The parents have the sympathy of the community in their deep sorrow.

Solomon Bridges, who has been in Pendleton several months, returned home Saturday.

BORN.

BURROUGHS.—On Saturday, January 3, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burroughs, a daughter.
