

Prices that Should Interest Everybody!

Christmas has come and gone---New Year's will also be a thing of the past shortly. Our fine stock of holiday goods now looks as if a cyclone had struck it, and prices will be made that will not even represent the raw material contained therein, aside from the making, freight charges, etc. We want the money, not the goods, so down goes the price.

These prices don't hold good longer than 9 P.M. Saturday, Jan. 10, 1903, as on the 5th we will commence Our Yearly Inventory.

Toilet Sets

We still have a few Toilet Sets left, and some are beauties, too. You should notice the ridiculous prices placed on them in our south window.

Prices that should sell goods

Main Street, Independence, Ore.

Waste Paper Baskets

We have six waste paper baskets left, and they are exceptionally neat affairs---just the thing for the parlor. The price range from $1.35 and up. They all go at 75 cents each.

Special Sale on books

All our stock of $1.50, our price $1.35, now go at the low price of $1.08. All 50 cent books at 29 cents. All 20 cent books at 14 cents. All other books same proportion.

Candies!

Out of all of our large shipments of candy we now have but two pounds of broken mixed on hand. All plain mixed sold out. All plain school mixed sold out. Only six pounds French mixed left. All our $4 boxes of candy gone, and the number of smaller boxes disposed of leaves our stock in a bad shape. Our new stock will arrive shortly.

If you are looking for bargains visit our stock before January 10th, for no business could hold up long at these prices.

Annual Oregonian

This edition will arrive at our store today (Thursday, January 1) and will be on sale at 5c per copy. We will have the paper mailed anywhere in the United States for 3 cents, making 8 cents per copy.
