Homer Lodge, No. 45, K. of P., publicly installed officers Wednesday evening. The boys sent out a number of handsome invitations to friends, and as a result quite an assemblage was present. The Knights have a faculty for doing things in a nice manner, and last night's reception, was no exception to the general rule. A banquet of much excellence was spread late in the evening. A hundred plates were served at the banquet. Grand Chancellor Stinson installed the officers and excellent addresses were made by Rev. E. C. Wigmore, of Monmouth, and Rev. Dr. Thompson, of this city. All in all it was the happiest lodge event of recent years.
