McCown-Conklin.

Special from Monmouth.

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. M. E. Conklin, on Tuesday, January 20, at 10 o'clock A. M., when her daughter, Miss Mertie, was united in marriage to Mr. Royal McCown, of Noble, Oregon.

The bride was daintily attired in white organdie with lace and the groom in the usual black. Only relatives and a few friends of the family were present. After partaking of a dainty lunch Mr. and Mrs. McCown left for Salem to take the train for their future home at Los Angeles, California.

Sears-Ottinger.

At the court house in Dallas on Thursday, January 15, Mark Sears and Miss Dora Ottinger, of Ballston, were united in marriage. Rev. Poling officiating.

When the young couple returned to Ballston that evening a large crowd of young friends gave them a reception at their home there and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The young couple are quite popular and their many friends wish them happiness in their new life.

To Correspondents.—We wish to announce a change in counting points. The items appearing in this week's paper will be credited in next week's paper, and so on. This is the plan pursued by the old management, and is free from errors and controversies.
