"It's queer things you see when you do not have a gun," was the remark uttered by a gentleman in our town when he heard some of the new candidates for public office.

Some people in Independence seem to have more time to talk about other peoples affairs than they have for their own. You generally see the result in the way they conduct their affairs.

Business is better by far in Independence this season than a year ago. In conversation with one business man here he put the increase at 100 per cent better than last February. Others report a gain of one-half more the business than last year. And so on. What we want, need and must have now is a pay roll. Then the outside world will not forget that there is a place like Independence.

FALLS CITY

At the council meeting Monday evening an ordinance was passed authorizing the issue of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors at saloons. The members of the council present were Watkins, Raymond, Gardner, Milligrn and Tethorow, with Mayor Moyer in the chair. The vote on the measure stood Watkins, Gardner and Tethorow in favor of and Raymond and Milligan opposed to authorizing the issue of saloon licenses.

It has been found impossible to get Rev. E. C. Wigmore to leave his work at Monmouth to address the Odd Fellows on their anniversary on the 26th of April. Other arrangements will, however, be made for the service.

Ira Foreman reached town on Tuesday, called up from California by the fact that A. J. Parrish has protested his claim, which the death of his mother left to him to prove up on. The hearing at Oregon City was postponed Monday.

J. R. Ford was taken ill again Tuesday with stomach trouble worse than ever before, and he feels that he will be forced to leave town for an extended rest and change of work. He is intending to leave as soon as he is in proper shape.

A St. Patrick's day dance was given at the Woodman hall on Tuesday evening and was well attended.

Sunday School Convention.

Following is the program of the quarterly Sunday school convention to be held at Lewisville, Oregon, March 29:

10:30—Review of lesson by classes under supervision of the Lewisville teachers, after which Mrs. Bonnie Smith will illustrate a primary lesson on the blackboard. Basket dinner at noon. In the afternoon the following subjects were treated:

"Qualifications of a Teacher," Rev. Haynes; "Benefits of Sunday School Conventions," M. M. Jones; "The Bible in the Sunday School," Rev. Lindsey; "Singing in the Sunday School," W. L. Bristow; "Parents and the Sunday School," A. C. Guyer and Mrs. Jones. Then followed the election of officers for the coming year and the transaction of other business.

John Finn and Henry Alexander, both of McCoy, were in city the latter part of last week on their way to Dallas to pay their taxes.
