Forfeited to Albany.

A dispatch from Albany to the Evening Telegram says: "The debate between Albany College and the Oregon State Normal School, which was to be held Friday night will not materialize. As required by the arrangements Albany submitted the question to Monmouth on the specified day and owing to some misunderstanding on the part of Monmouth authorities that institution did not make a choice of sides. When it was two weeks past the time Monmouth should have notified Albany which side of the question that school intended to defend the debate was called off. The O. S. N. S. authorities have acknowledged their error in the matter, and as required by the governing conditions have formally forfeited the debate to Albany."

Surprised Him.

Special from Falls City.

Gilbert Tyson had a birthday last Friday and a surprise was arranged in honor of the event. A party consisting of J. C. Talbott and wife, A. F. Courter and wife, Mrs. A. H. Watkins, Mrs. Clay Courter, Miss Emma Tice, Miss Josie Moyer, Miss Maude Graham, F. J. Holman, R. R. Davenport, A. L. Travis and Harry Lowe met at the J. R. Ford home and allowed Mr. Tyson to walk in on them much to his surprise. An evening full of games and pleasure followed. Mr. Tyson's new phonograph added much to the entertainment. Mr. Tyson is willing to live to be 100 if each year brings such an event.

American field fence weighs two pounds more to the rod than other makes of the same height. Consequently it is stronger better and cheaper. You can see the different kinds at R. M. Wade & Co.

It is not their excellent lodge, but their most excellent cake-makers, that the Buena Circle ladies desire mentioned in this item. There was the initiation last Friday evening, of Mrs. Mary A. Davisson, of Parker, and Isaac Compton, of near Independence, and then there was cake, the best, it is affirmed, that mortal ever tasted.—and then there was adjournment.

There were lively times at the rock quarry for a few minutes Monday afternoon and visions of the future world flitted through the minds of the men employed about the work. A candle placed under a box of powder to thaw out the latter, burned down and caught fire on the box. In the twinkling of an eye every man vanished behind some convenient stump, save Mr. Smith, the foreman. With rare presence of mind and courage he rushed upon the scene and extinguished the blaze. There was 300 pounds of powder in the box. It was a close call.

Any young man who has patience, perseverance and ambition can make a place for himself in the world if he desires, no matter how many obstacles may lie in his pathway. This is proven by the career of James Getty, a former Buena boy, now studying Civil engineering in San Francisco. Mr. Getty has made his way step by step to his present position, which
