 It made a person feel proud of our fire boys, our water system and our citizens when they saw the excellent work done at the fire yesterday afternoon. We have never seen a paid company of firemen do as heroic work at a fire as our boys did yesterday. The entire block seemed doomed, but they were equal to the occasion. All honor to our fire boys.
 Chas. Allen, who used to live here, is in a very critical condition at his home in Salem. It is remembered that he was the victim of a most peculiar disease—that of going to sleep at any place or any time. It seems this trouble, notwithstanding Mr. Allen has engaged in hard outdoor work, has increased and the other day his life was despaired of. He was, however, reported as improved the first of the week.

 The annual congregational Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock church. Reports from the officers will be presented and election of elders, trustees, other officers will be held. Plans the future work of the church be considered. Every one interested in the work of the church is cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stark deeply appreciative of the assistance rendered them in fire yesterday. Not only there willing hands among men but the ladies were in evidence carrying out things from the building structure. Another equally grateful is Mr. Knox, is at loss of appropriate words express his thankfulness to all worked so hard to save his property from the threatening flames. Citizens of Independence are all appreciative of the offer of help in Monmouth. They telephoned down saying they were willing come by the wagon loads to render any assistance possible. Last more than all, we should be thankful to a kind providence who sent the wind until after the damage was passed and thereby saved the loss what seemed to be a block structures doomed to destruction.

Sudden Death of Mrs. McDaniel

Mrs. Lois McDaniel, wife of H. McDaniel, of Rickreall, died there Monday morning, March 2 at 3 o'clock. Mrs. McDaniel had been ill but a few days with grippe and was not thought seriously ill and her death caused a great shock to her relatives and friends. The funeral was held at the Burch graveyard, near Rickreall, April 1st. The deceased was aged 34 years and was well and favorably known. She was sister-in-law of the late Mrs. George Wilcox, of this city, and of Dr. McDaniel, of Portland, who was injured there a few months ago in a bicycle accident.

No preparation on the market equals

as a smut eradicator. It is a preparation used and recommended by the Oregon Agricultural College. Farmers will do well to give this formula a thorough test.

Directions: One ounce to three gallons of water. This solution is sprinkled on 10 bushels of wheat, and then thoroughly mix in order to moisten each grain.

A. S. Locke,
 The Independence Druggist.
