Announcement Extraordinary.

With this issue the Independence Enterprise absorbs the subscription list of the Falls City Leader. This swells our own list over 250 more and gives the Enterprise by far the best list of any paper in Polk county and they are all paid in advance, too. We shall endeavor to give the people of Falls City the very best service and trust they will reciprocate by their good will and continued patronage.

Admiral Dewey, in his criticism of the German navy, succeeded in making a first-class fool of himself and should be severely called down by President Roosevelt. A man in the United States service has no business to criticize a foreign nation in public print. In the capacity of a private citizen that alters conditions and does not have the appearance of being official.

In the death of Henry W. Corbett, Oregon loses her most valued citizen. He it was who was always foremost in developing the industries of the state, and his deeds of philanthropy were legion. At a time when the Lewis and Clark fair needs most a financier at its head it is the hardest to spare him. Oregon will wait long before having another H. W. Corbett.

FALLS CITY

Next Monday is election day. Do your duty and vote.

County Superintendent C. S. Starr was a visitor among us Monday.

Mona Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will meet at Bridgeport Saturday.

I Coughed

"I had a most stubborn cough for many years. It deprived me of sleep and I grew very thin. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was quickly cured."
R. N. Mann, Fall Mills, Tenn.

Sixty years of cures and such testimony as the above have taught us what Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will do.

We know it's the greatest cough remedy ever made. And you will say so, too, after you try it. There's cure in every drop.

Three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.
J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

David F. Courter has been placed at the head of the ticket first headed by J. R. Moyer.

Mrs. Susan Bryant and family now of Fortland, are planning to make this place their home again in the near future.

The bridge gang of the new railroad has reached town and begun work on the bridge across the Luckiamute at the Ellis place.

Under the ordinance recently passed by the council licenses to run saloons have been issued to Thomas Edgar and to H. Fugitt. The latter has his place in full operation and the Edgar place is being fitted up.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Kinney reached town Saturday from Traverse City, Michigan. Mrs. Kinney is a sister of Mrs. Manuel Ward, who is now in the east and she and Mr. Kinney took Mr. Ward entirely by surprise. From them we learn that Mrs. Ward is intending to return to this place in the first days of May.
