A Great Sensation.
There was a big sensation in Leeville, Ind., when W. H. Brown, of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Kirkland Drug Co. Trial bottles free.

HOBSON CAN'T COME.
Answers a Request to Lecture Here.
Greensboro, Ala., Mch 31.
Clarence R. Wagoner, Esq., Independence, Oregon.

Dear Sir:—
Your letter of the 13th inst. has reached me after many delays. I have referred your letter to Major J. B. Pond at the Everett House, New York City, who is arranging my lecture dates, and he will doubtless inform you by wire if there is a chance for my delivering a lecture at Independence during this present tour. I fear, however, that the dates are already filled out. I assure you it would give me great pleasure to come to Independence should it prove practicable. Yours very truly,
R. P. Hobson.

Since the above was written we have been advised that all dates are occupied. We made the attempt to bring Mr. Hobson here, because Independence has a majority of people interested in intellectual work, and Mr. Hobson is one of the best examples of the younger American manhood.

From An Old Resident of Independence.

Corvallis, April 10.
EDITOR ENTERPRISE.
I received notice that our subscription had expired. We can not get along without it. We used to be old residents of Independence and it is a welcome visitor to us. We have been watching your creamery business closely and must say you do a great deal better than we do here. Probably Polk county has better cows than Benton. Wishing you and your paper success, I remain,
Sincerley Yours,
Mrs. C. C. HUFF

ORATORICAL CONTESTS.

E. S. Evenden Carries Off Contest at Monmouth.

God".....Rev. E. J. Thompson
"And now to the memory of him who said: 'When I am dead I wish my monument to be builded only in the hearts and memories of my brethren of the Ancient and Accepted Rite, and my name to be remembered by them in every country, no matter what language men speak there, where the light of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite shall shine, and its Oracles of Truth and Wisdom be reverently listened to.'"
"He has lived;
The fruits of his labors live after him."

When the party broke up the Independence people accompanied the guests to the depot, when all boarded the special motor and accompanied the Monmouth guests home and later going to Dallas. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. V. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Butler,
