

AIRLIE.

Floyd Blake, of Dallas, is visiting Airlie relatives.

C. K. Spaulding, of Newberg, was in town last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Caron were Dallas visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Hugh Hanna sold a fine milk cow last week for $50.

James Sebring is in Southern Oregon, looking for a timber claim.

Mrs. S. B. Hastings, who has been quite seriously ill, is much better.

Hon. Ben. Hayden was a guest at the home of H. Simpson last Sunday.

O. L. Buchanan and wife have returned from a business trip to Portland.

The Misses Marie and Nellie Link, of Montgomery, were Airlie shoppers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Womer, of Pelee, were liberal patrons of our merchants last Saturday.

G. W. Horner, who is now manager of the Taylor store, seems to be the right man in the right place.

There was quite a fall of snow here on Friday of last week, which made the early garden truck look discouraged.

W. W. Miller, a hop grower of Pelee, was in town last week and reports the outlook for a good crop very favorable.

Those of our goat men who had pooled their mohair are well pleased with the price received at the sale in Dallas last week.

A large drive of logs belonging to the Spaulding Logging Co. was stranded near the Bagley bridge by a sudden fall of the water in the Luckiamute.

A telephone repairer was here last week and readjusted the internal apparatus of our hello machine and now we can be heard when we have anything to say.

The egg market was unusually active during the past week, the daily receipts at one of our stores being over 150 dozen, brought in by the neighboring farmers and exchanged for merchandise of different kinds.

THE SIGN OF GOOD TAILORING

Here is the great Oak-Easel now on display at our store. It contains the line of beautiful new spring tailoring samples sent us by

STRAUSS BROS., Chicago
Good Tailors for 26 Years

The Oak-Easel is the connecting link between the tailor and the faultlessly finished garments which give you so much pleasure to wear. It's really a lesson in good clothes buying to see this great collection of tailoring novelties.

Prices low and satisfaction absolutely guaranteed. Call soon.

P. M. Kirkland

E. A. Taylor has resigned the office of post-master here and a petition is being circulated to have G. W. Horner appointed his successor. Mr. Taylor's business interests requires his absence from home the greater part of the time, hence his resignation.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind. knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Kirkland Drug Co.'s.

ANTIOCH.

L. Green, of Dallas, preached to a large crowd here Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Ohms made a business trip to Salem Wednesday.

Marion Smith, of Lewisville, was seen in our neighborhood Saturday.

Vardie and Will Fishback sheared goats for J. H. Moran Thursday.

Robert Fishback is helping Geo. Murphy saw logs for Glen Ireland.

John Ground and C. Marks are converting big oaks into saw timber.

August Ohms went to Dallas Friday to be present at the selling of mohair.

Mr. Bagley, of near Lewisville, was in our vicinity Friday buying registered stock.

Fred Simpson and Ernest Bush spent several days last week visiting Will Herren.

John Chamberlain will be head fireman in the Bryan Lucas planing mill this summer.

Mrs. Ida Clark came up from Portland Saturday on a visit to her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. Clark.

Hop yards have been cleaned and cultivated and the hops have started to grow. Early gardens have been planted.

The farmers are jubilant over the 38 5-8 cents a pound which they received for their mohair in the pool at Dallas last week.

To all parents: Make your boy or girl happy all the summer by paying $1.50 for a year's subscription to the INDEPENDENCE ENTERPRISE.

Mr. Boginsky, who recently purchased the 40-acre tract of land of Mr. Chase, has set out a number of fruit trees, which adds much to the appearance of his home.

There are few county papers in the state of Oregon with so large a circulation or with a better record than the ENTERPRISE, and it deserves a place in every home.

RICKREALL.

Geo. Wilcox was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Frank Gibson had an attack of la grippe, but is improving.

What's the use
Of buying expensive linen and taking it to some cheap-priced laundry to be ruined by careless goods and bleaching compounds? Patronize a laundry which does the work, washes clean, irons without scorching and leaves you content—paying long run and saves worryment. We speak your patronage because we can afford you satisfaction. Left at Kutch's barbershop or the stage will receive prompt attention.
