

THE OLD RELIABLE

Social and Personal.

Stock pasture. C. W. Leonard Excursion to Falls City next Sunday.

Chas. Collins went to Portland Sunday.

Louie Wiprut spent Sunday in Albany.

Chas. O'Brien, of Salem, was in town Monday.

Dr. Woods, of Dallas, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Owen were in Portland Sunday.

Fresh salted peanuts and almonds at Wagoner's.

Deputy Sheriff Hayter was on our streets Tuesday.

F. A. Douty was a passenger to Portland Tuesday.

Oliver Smith was in Portland the first of the week.

Who's Dougherty? He is Fennell's expert horseshoer.

T. G. Fisher spent Sunday with his family in Portland.

Dougherty, the horseshoer, with Fennell, the blacksmith.

T. J. Newell, of this city, was in Portland during the week.

The motor will run an excursion to Falls City next Sunday.

Miss Lulu Robertson was a passenger to Portland Saturday.

I. Dickinson is putting an addition to the front of his barn.

Calbreath handles the Salem soap. Give it a thorough trial.

Stock pastured. Esquire of U. G. Hefley, Monmouth, Oregon.

J. H. Hawley, of Monmouth, was a Portland visitor this week.

Some sixty tickets were sold for the excursion Sunday to Portland.

The motor was crowded on its trips the first day of the carnival.

Mrs. Clabe Richardson returned Saturday from a visit in Portland.

Hilliard & Plymale are the old reliable standbys in the blacksmith.

Miss Lettie Masterson returned this morning from a visit in Albany.

Mrs. Julia Douty passed through town Tuesday on her way to Portland.

Norval Atkins, station agent at Forest Grove, was in town this week.

Asa Robinson is visiting his folks here. He is now stationed at Hoquiam, Wash., but has been to Eastern Oregon on business.

Try our fine taffies. Wagoner.

Cleve Robinson returned Tuesday evening from a short visit in Portland.

Miss Emmerson, of Sheridan, is visiting at the home of John Dickinson.

Miss Bertha Gwinn returned on Wednesday afternoon from Mt. Angel college.

President E. D. Ressler, of Monmouth, was a passenger to Portland Tuesday.

The Rebekah lodge cleared the neat sum of $40 on their dance Friday evening.

Mr. Jacobson, former assistant at the depot here, is now stationed at Cottage Grove.

Miss Vanche Dickinson left Tuesday for Seattle, where she will spend the summer.

Several ice cream dishes for sale at Wagoner's for 25 cents each. Good for home use.

You will be satisfied with the work of Dougherty, the horseshoer, with Thos. Fennell.

When in Salem visit Strong's Restaurant. It is headquarters for Independence people.

Clare Irvine was among those who took advantage of the Sunday excursion to Portland.

Mrs. U. G. Hefley and her brother-in-law, Joe Douglas, were Salem visitors Wednesday.

Curt Hawley, of McCoy, was in town Sunday on his way to Monmouth to visit his parents.

A new firm is to open a saloon in the Palace hotel building. The room is being put in shape.

Chester Stumberg was up from Portland to spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riddle, of Monmouth, were incoming passengers on the boat this morning.

A number of large peanut sacks for sale at 5 cents each at Wagoner's. Fine for chittim bark.

Mr. Babcock returned to his home in McMinnville Monday after a short visit with I. Dickinson and family.

The Independence and Monmouth motor is making round trips from McMinnville to Dallas during the carnival.

Miss Grace Damon and Miss Leona Ryan, two of the capital city young ladies, were in Independence over Friday night.

Mrs. Fred Hooper was a passenger to Dallas Tuesday evening. She is one of the maids of honor for the Dallas carnival.

Grant Robertson, after a several months' stay with his brother, Oris, in Eastern Oregon, returned home Tuesday evening.

One three-gallon ice cream freezer in good shape for sale at Wagoner's for only $1.50. Also one two-gallon freezer for $1.00.

Call and see the new line of ladies' oxfords and strap sandals, also Misses' and children's slippers in red and black at Messner's.

Mrs. Oliver Locke returned to her home in Salem this morning after a several days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Damon.

George Linville and daughter, Miss Ada, returned to their home in Portland Monday after a visit with J. S. Bohannon and family.

Miss Iva Burton was a passenger to Corvallis Saturday, returning home Monday.

Mrs. H. W. Murphy, of this city, was registered at the Perkins hotel in Portland Sunday.

Horseshoeing is our specialty and we will take a back seat to no man living in this line. Hilliard & Plymale, Independence.

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell and little daughter, of Portland, visited in Independence and Monmouth last week, returning home Sunday.

New magazines for June now on sale at Wagoner's—Ladies' Home Journal, Frank Leslie's, Munsey, Argosy, Strand and Cosmopolitan.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Hattie Jones, of this city, and Mr. Corwin A. Townsend, of Portland, on Wednesday, June 17.

The Woodman Circle of this city, is to unveil the monument at the grave of the late Mrs. Peter Kurze, Sunday, June 14, at the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Miss Maude Brant is working in the telephone office in Portland. Recently Mrs. Brant returned from Alaska. They are former residents of Independence.

Dr. W. R. Allin's left optic collided with a tennis ball last Thursday evening and he had to carry the injured member in a "sling" several days.

Howard Gwinn left this week for Hecketahead light house, which is located over on the coast. He has work on a new wagon road that is being put in there.

Hairless sheep marking liquid stays in with the weather, washes out in the scouring; will increase the selling value of every fleece. Now on sale at Frazer & Rice's.

Hilliard & Plymale invite a comparison of their work with the best turned out of any blacksmith shop. Then they ask you to ascertain prices. Work best, prices lowest.

Miss Nellie Burke left Monday for Portland. From there she will go to The Dalles to visit until the first of August, after which she will go to Long Beach for the summer.

H. M. Lines, who is living in Portland, recently took charge of a crew on a railroad in Utah for the summer. The position is a good one. His family will remain in Portland.

Prof. D. Simpson is teaching in the Training Department of the Normal at Monmouth. As soon as school is out he will go to Salem, where he will attend school this summer.

Evangelistic meetings are being conducted by Rev. G. H. Phelps, of Hillsboro, at Maple Grove, Lewisville, and will continue to June 17. All are welcome to attend these meetings.

Notice to Masons: At the meeting Saturday evening the M. M. degree will be conferred. All visiting and brother Masons are solicited to be in attendance.

Never has the appearance of our naturally beautiful city appeared to such advantage as at the present time. We pity indeed the person who can walk about our town and not admire the foliage and lovely appearance in general of our town.

The only wood worker in the town is at Hilliard & Plymale's. He has a full and complete stock of wood for all carriage, wagon and general jobbing. Workmanship unexcelled. See him.

Dr. E. J. Miller and wife, of near Chicago, arrived here Saturday to visit with the family of J. Dickinson. They have been visiting on the Sound and will go from here to Los Angeles, California.

Frazer & Rice have received this week a new lot of buggies, some styles that have never been carried in stock in town before. They would be pleased to have you look at them whether you buy or not.

Polk County Pomona Grange will meet with Highland Grange on Wednesday, June 10, at 10 A. M. Business of importance is to be transacted and a full attendance is urged. Marion Smith, master.

Mrs. J. E. Hale, of Baker City, and her brother, Milford Thorp, of Thorp, Wash., are visiting friends in Monmouth and Independence. Both are former residents of this place.

Miss Patience Cooper left Saturday for Portland and Hood River. Friday of this week she expects to leave Seattle for Alaska to spend the summer with Miss Ann Mann. They will return home together.

A test was made Tuesday evening of the new water mains on Main street. The stream of water was forced 90 feet high. The government test of this water finds it to be 30 per cent purer than any in the state.

Moore's Hair Invigorator and Herpicide are the world's greatest scalp cleansers and hair invigorators. Both are for sale at J. S. Moore's barber shop. Call and have Mr. Moore give an application of either remedy and you will never be without one or the other.

K. C. Eldridge returned home Sunday from a ten days' trip up the valley from Jefferson to Eugene. Mr. Eldridge received nine head of fine milk cows that he purchased while away in Linn county and has brought them down here to sell to his customers. He reports his Jefferson creamery a big success.

Mrs. S. E. Owen and Mrs. A. S. Locke entertained the members of the ladies' reading club at the home of the latter last Thursday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses. The reading of "Lovey Mary" by Miss Burke, Miss Dickinson, Mrs. Geo. Burton and Miss Edith Owen was the amusement of the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. The evening proved a very enjoyable one for the large membership present.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...

Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

A rather sensational event occurred in town this morning. Altercations between A. W. Stanbury and H. G. Seeley led to the discharge of a gun in Stanbury's hands, accidentally, so the latter party says. We understand the matter is to be brought before the proper authorities and as we are not exactly familiar with the circumstances we refrain from mentioning contradictory details until such time as they are properly brought to light.

Lost—A small blue Australian Shepard dog six months old. Last seen near Burns Mill. Liberal reward for return of same to Evan Evans, Parker Ore.

Capt. Ogden, government engineer, was in the city Tuesday reports the work on the revetment as progressing nicely. A crew of some 25 men working at the present time.

About 20 young men from the Corvallis Agricultural College, accompanied by three of the professors, came down this morning on the freight and proceeded to the Johnnie Stump farm to familiarize themselves with his fine stock. They returned here and had lunch after which they took the afternoon train to North Yamhill to visit the fine stock farm owned by the Ladds of Portland. Then they are to visit similar farms at Readville and Milwaukie, returning to Corvallis Sunday. These young men are making a special study of the line of industry, and Prof. Wittcomb is the teacher in charge. Sammy Damon, of this city, is one of the young men on the trip.

Notice.

The steam baler will be in the field and ready to bale as soon as the hay crop is ready.
G. L. READ.

Notice.

Owing to trouble in collecting outstanding accounts my work will be strictly cash from this date.
T. B. CLEVINGER.

Boot and shoe maker, Independence, Oregon.

The Arcade
Davidson & Hedges, Props.

CIGARS, CIGARETTES, TOBACCO, COS and Confectionery.

FIRST CLASS SODA FOUNTAIN CONNECTION.

SQUIRRELS

Have you got 'em? Don't you want 'em?
If not use

Boss Squirrel Poison

Each and every can guaranteed.

A. S. Locke,
The Prescription Druggist.