SUVER.

Dr. Davis, of Albany, is doctoring Mrs. Larson, who is still quite sick.

Mr. C. E. McLane made a business trip to Portland the fore part of the week.

H. Frum has put a new well at the house, which took a few hours' work.

Mrs. Cumming, of Corvallis, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. E. DeArmond.

Communion services held here by Rev. C. C. Poling, were well attended Sunday.

Mr. H. T. Ridders intends to commence threshing in the vicinity of Suver next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. James left last Tuesday for Washington, where they intend to make their home.

Mrs. Joe Ridders, who had her arm broken last summer, fell last Thursday and broke her arm again.

Mrs. J. H. Knighton and daughter, Alice, of Buena Vista, were visiting in Suver the fore part of the week.

A. Gobat passed through here with a new reaper, purchased by Fred Stump, something that is very seldom seen in this part of the country.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. Its best salve on earth and will prevent fatality when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c at A. S. Locke's drug store.

Passing of the Bicycle.

One of the signs of the times, or rather of the characteristics of the times, is the decline and fall of the bicycle. It has not been so long ago since there was a craze for the wheel—a craze from which no age, color, sex or previous condition of servitude to other fads was exempt. Men and women, old and young, adults and children, all rode the wheel. The parks, the streets and the roadways were filled with riders of the steel steed, and whenever one passed a couple or a group in deep conversation, the subject of talk was sure to be the wheel, its properties, its belongings, its excellencies and the proficiency in its management to which the talkers had attained.

Now all is changed. As a fad the wheel is as obsolete as the dodo, especially among young women, who before, apparently, could not get enough of it. This is a characteristic of the American nervous anxiety to get all possible out of everything in the shortest possible time, and to run fad into the ground. Then the natural, inevitable, reaction comes; the pendulum of popular caprice swings to the other end, and what was before so admirable is dropped completely and pays for its former supremacy by being consigned to practical oblivion.—Baltimore American.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by Kirkland Drug Co.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by Kirkland Drug Co.
