

THE OLD RELIABLE

Social and Personal.

Cash paid for eggs at the creamery.

All the latest periodicals at Wagoner's.

Clyde Hill was in Newport over Sunday.

J. W. Kirkland has moved into his new office.

D. Calbreath was a Corvallis visitor Tuesday.

Ernest Johnson is clerking in Douty's grocery.

Tents and camp stoves cheap at R. M. Wade & Co's.

Miss Nellie Pomeroy visited over Sunday in Falls City.

Chet VanMeer is visiting in town. His home is in Seattle.

Seven George W. Childs cigars for 25 cents at Wagoner's.

Frank Fisher and family came up from Portland Saturday.

Mrs. D. F. Hopkins was a passenger to Newport Saturday.

Mrs. T. Campbell returned from a visit in Corvallis Saturday.

Olen Scrafford, of Walla Walla, Wash., is visiting in the city.

Carl Percival left Monday for Astoria to attend the regatta.

Mrs. S. E. Owen left Monday to spend regatta week at Astoria.

H. M. Cooper left Tuesday to camp at the foot of Mount Jefferson.

Miss L. Ground, of Portland, was an incoming passenger Tuesday.

Zed Rosendorf was a north-bound passenger Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Wilson and daughter were passengers Friday to Newport.

Mrs. R. H. Knox and children left Friday for Ashland, for a visit.

Miss Mira Kimberlin returned Sunday from a visit at Lafayette.

Herbert Adkins, of Monmouth, was a passenger to Newport Saturday.

Rev. W. W. Edmondson and family are camping above Falls City.

"So-Boss-So," the greatest fly exterminator yet, at Frazer & Rice's.

Miss Madge Cleland, of Portland, is visiting at the home of O. D. Butler.

The daughters of Mr. Weston, of Amity, are guests at the home of M. Tillery.

Frank Masterson, who has been in Southern Oregon, returned home Monday.

J. S. Moore's barbershop is being repainted on both the exterior and interior.

R. H. Wilcox, of Pendleton, came in Saturday for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. August Sperling and children left Monday for an outing at Newport.

George Jones and sisters returned Tuesday from a trip to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mix and daughter returned Monday from a trip to Sodaville.

The Misses Florence and Edna Burnett are spending several weeks at Newport.

For sale—A fresh cow, nearly thoroughbred Jersey. Enquire at this office.

Mrs. S. B. Ross, who has been to visit her father, H. D. Foster, left Monday for Ohio.

S. M. Daniel, the Monmouth merchant, spent a number of days in Portland last week.

Mrs. May Babbitt, Miss Bowden and Master Dick returned from Portland this week.

Mrs. F. E. Chambers returned to Eugene Monday, after a visit with relatives here.

W. H. Whitaker and wife came up from Portland Friday, returning Sunday afternoon.

Wagoner's Ice Cream is unsurpassed by any on the market. A trial will convince you.

Miss Booth, of The Dalles, returned home Monday, after a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Nash, the new teacher of music at the Normal, came in on Monday morning's train.

A postoffice has been established at Maple Grove, this county. W. L. Bristow, is postmaster.

Mrs. P. H. Johnson, of Monmouth, left Saturday for Newport, for a few days at the coast.

A Mr. Myers, from Sterling, Illinois, came in Saturday morning. He is a prospective locator.

Miss Nash, the new instructor of music at the Normal, was a passenger to Nashville Tuesday.

Douglas Butler and wife, of Napa California, visited at i. M. Butler's this week, leaving Tuesday.

Mrs. H. D. Foster returned Saturday from Vancouver, Wash., where she had been on a visit.

Mr. Scofield and A. Noltner attended the meeting at the board of regents at the Normal last week.

An excursion train to Newport passed through town early Sunday morning. It was fairly well patronized.

Mrs. Thomas Fennell and Miss Katie Hart, of Portland, were passengers to Sodaville Tuesday for an outing.

J. Geo. Stoll opened his restaurant Saturday. He has a neat place of business, a credit to the town.

F. A. Douty, of Portland, was in the city Sunday. His new grocery department was opened for the public Monday morning.

R. C. Wright, an attorney of Portland, was in the city Saturday, with a possible view of location. He decided not to come to this point.

Prof. Pennock and wife, of Idaho, are visiting the family of J. M. Scroggs. They are enroute to California.

For sale.—Black horse, weight 1500, gentle, can be worked anywhere. Enquire of O. J. Bagley, Suver.

Mrs. Ebbert, who makes her home in Portland, is spending several days with her parents at Monmouth.

The Oregonian agency is at Wagoner's. Subscribe for Oregon's leading daily. Daily, by the week, 15 cents.

Luke Hawley, after spending a few days at home, left last week for Seaside and from there will go to Pendleton.

James Collins is running a flouring mill at Oakland, California. He doesn't like California, and will return home soon.

I. Vanduyne, of Portland, was in the city this week. At one time he was identified with the business interests of Independence.

Joe Guthrie, who was injured in an accident at Falls City recently is improving. His condition remains very serious, however.

M. O. Welch and family left Monday for Newberg, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Welch has employment there.

Miss Patience Cooper and Miss Ann Mann returned from Wilhoiet Springs Friday. They were also over-Sunday visitors at Newport.

Harry DeBorde, who has been working in a logging camp, broke the bones of his left hand Saturday, and he is now stopping at his home in this city.

Moore's Hair Invigorator and Herpicide are the world's greatest scalp cleansers and hair invigorators. Both are for sale at J. S. Moore's barber shop. Call and have Mr. Moore give an application of either remedy and you will never be without one or the other.

The words Coffee or Tea are expressive. They suggest hospitality, liberality and good cheer. Poor Coffee is an abomination. Poor Tea is worse. They disgrace the name and are a social sham. If you want to be sure that your Coffee and Tea will really stand the test buy only Chase & Sanborn's. Experts say they are the finest grown. This may well be for they are grown to their special order on private plantations and cost more owing to the great pains taken. But they are delicious. Prove this for yourself by making your next purchase at the

Star Grocery,
Sole agent for Chase & Sanborn's goods in Independence,

Harry E. Wagoner,
Confectioner, Independence, Ore.

Jerome Dornsife returned Saturday from a month's outing spent in the state of Washington. His rheumatism is not so bad as formerly.

Mrs. A. N. Halleck and daughter, who have been spending several weeks in Eastern Oregon, returned to Monmouth Friday via Independence.

Fred Moseman, of Tacoma, Wash., came in Wednesday. He is looking after property interests in this section.

W. A. Luzader and wife, after a brief visit here with Wm. Iliff's family, left Monday for California. They will return East over the Central Pacific.

Miss Rose Abern, of Salem, South Dakota and Miss Content Elton, of The Dalles, Oregon, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson the past week.

J. Robinson and wife, of Portland, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, in this city, last week. They returned home Sunday.

W. H. Powell and wife of St. Helens, passed through town from Newport Tuesday. At one time Mr. Powell was principal of the school here, but of recent years he has practiced law at St. Helens.

Mrs. Mellen, of Salem, a sister of Mrs. J. E. Hubbard, visited in town this week. This is the first time in four years she has been in Independence, as she is a total invalid. She is visiting at the Irelands', near Monmouth.

Otis Duree, who has been spending several weeks at the home of H. H. Wagoner, left Monday for Portland and the Sound. After a short stay there he will return to Iowa, by way of Sacramento, Salt Lake City and Denver.

A very enjoyable and harmonious party, consisting of the immediate members of the family and a few intimate friends, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goff last Saturday evening. Games, music, etc. helped the evening to pass merrily away. Late in the evening a dainty repast was served, after which the guests departed, taking with them many pleasant memories of a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. R. S. Clark, of Salem, has been spending several days with friends here. She says they like Salem very much, and that Mr. Clark, who has purchased an interest in a steam woodsaw, is doing well.

W. A. Luzader and wife, of Bloomington, Illinois, visited over Sunday with Wm. Iliff's family. The parties were Eastern acquaintances. Mr. Luzader is thinking some of coming to some point in the west and locating.

Ross Nelson, Tom Fitchard, George Graves, Perle Locke, Hugh Shelley and "Mike" Walker left Monday for an outing at Newport. They have a camp of their own—"Camp Pendix in Happy Hollow." They are a merry gang, and it is guaranteed that all the fun coming their way will not be permitted to pass by unmolested.

There will be no preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday. But on Sunday, the 23d, the pastor will conduct divine services in the morning at 11:00 o'clock. Subject: "A Candid Master." In the evening will be the fourth quarterly meeting preaching service. Sermon by the Rev. T. B. Ford D. D., of Eugene, Ore. The fourth quarterly conference will be held Monday morning at 8:30. All members and friends are urgently requested to be present.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...
Painless Extraction a Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OSCAR HAYTER,
Attorney-at-Law,
CAMPBELL BUILDING,
DALLAS, OREGON.

G. A. HURLEY,
Attorney at Law and Notary Public.
Collections Promptly Made—Titles Investigated.
East Side Main Street,
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.