

Social and Personal.

Wagoner's for watermelons.
Hop-picking is in full blast.
See R. M. Wade & Co's stove ad.
Ladies' black hose 7/10 at Douty's.
E. E. Paddock has gone East on business.
Ladies' shirt waist for 25 cents at Douty's.
One 30 gallon barrel for sale at Wagoner's.
C. D. Simpson is weighmaster at Hanna's hop yard.
Vern Bartlett returned from Newport Saturday.
Miss Maggie Pomeroy is clerking for E. E. Paddock.
Mrs. Homer Hill was a passenger to Corvallis Tuesday.
"Duke" Hirschberg was over from Salem Monday.
18 pounds best western refinery sugar. $1.00 at Douty's.
Justice Wilson and wife have returned from their outing.
W. F. Campbell is running a store in the Hanna yard.
Largest, finest up-to-date undertakers' goods at Jasperson's.
Dean Goodman is driving the delivery wagon for F. A. Douty.
Elmer Harris, of Oak Grove, lost a very valuable mare last week.
Ora Clodfelter returned this week from a summer's outing at Newport.
Livery stable and land for sale for $800. Particulars, G. A. Hurley.
An elegant line of guns and sporting goods at R. M. Wade & Co's.
Vetch seed for sale in any quantity. Enquire of U. G. Heffley, Monmouth.
The Misses Lucile and Geneva Wilcox returned from Newport Wednesday.
Miss Bessie Butler and Miss Helen Cooper returned from Newport Tuesday.
Miss Ella Robinson has resigned her position as day operator at the telephone office.
Vetch seed for sale. Order early. Supply limited. T. J. Pettit, Monmouth, Ore.
Some of the finest candy ever brought to town came to Wagoner's this week.
Mrs. Wallace's millinery opening on Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodman returned from a several days' visit in Eugene Tuesday.
Frank Bruce, a former Independence boy, is here from Washington during hop-picking.
Mrs. Ed Marshall, of Tacoma, Wash., came in Monday on a visit to her mother here.
Wagoner's store is furnishing several hop yards with supplies. Get yours there also.
A 75 cent crash hat for 25 cents at Douty's.
Mrs. M. W. Wallace invites the ladies to inspect her millinery goods on Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12.

A straw hat for 5 cents at Douty's.
Jerome Dornisife is in San Francisco.
1 gallon Acorn syrup, 45 cents at Douty's.
Dr. O. D. Ireland, of Portland, was in the city this week.
Schilling's baking powder, 40c per pound at Douty's.
Miss Ida Hubbard attended the Elgin funeral at Corvallis Sunday.
Ben Cox and family, who moved here recently from Ione, have returned to Eastern Oregon.
Simon Wing, years ago an Independence boy, came up from Portland Tuesday morning.
Mrs. E. O. Gerfin and child, of Portland, were guests of J. W. Kirkland and wife the past week.
Four yearling calves for sale cheap. Enquire of Peter Kurre, living south of Independence.
L. C. Gilmore was in the city this week. He resides in a small town not far from Los Angeles Cal.
James Collins returned from Oakland, California, Friday. He will remain here several weeks.
Miss Vena Goff returned to Great Falls, Montana, Monday, where she will teach again this winter.
Miss Bertha Bohannon returned Saturday evening from Seaside, where she has spent the summer.
Miss Hazel Kennedy returned Sunday from Portland, where she was visiting Mrs. Hattie Townsend.
W. C. Bryant leaves this week for Moro, Sherman county, where he will be principal the coming year.
Phillip Mulkey and wife were incoming passengers Tuesday morning, taking the motor to Monmouth.
100 acres of fine land in Marion county. Good saw timber. Good sale. Well located, $2000. G. A. Hurley.
Mrs. A. D. Davidson went to Newport Saturday, where she was called by the illness of her brother, Pearl Hedges.
J. E. Hubbard and family moved to their hopyard near Corvallis Monday, and will be absent about three weeks.
Harry Belt will have the principals of the Ballston public school the coming winter.—McMinnville Reporter.
We are informed that Henry Waller will take charge of the Stark grocery at Falls City after the first of the month.
Mr. Baker, the photographer at the Pickel gallery, is turning out the best work ever seen in the county. Prices right.
Mrs. Sarah Young returned to Portland Friday, where she will resume her former position with Lipman, Wolfe & Co.
Little Velena Heffley returned from a several weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. M. E. Hendrick, in McMinnville Saturday.
Mrs. Carrie Labree returned to her home in Olympia Monday, after a several weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. W. G. Cressy.
Jasperson buys his undertakers' goods whenever spot cash will secure goods to best advantage for himself and his customers.

Late styles in Gordon $3.00 hats at Douty's.
Miss Booth, of The Dalles, was an incoming passenger Sunday morning, and will be the guest of relatives here for a few weeks.
Prof. W. G. Spillman, government agrostologist, and a former O. S. N. S. instructor, passed through Independence one day this week.
Dallas is to have a new bank. This will make the county seat two banks. It is rumored that Dallas capitalists are to put a bank at Falls City.
We are pleased to announce that W. F. Campbell has decided to remain in town in the future. He has not decided in what he will engage.
Dr. Darrin, the specialist at Albany, has his office crowded every day, and the list of testimonials of his cures are eloquent tributes to his ability.
T. J. Newbill has returned to town and is making preparation for the commencing of school. He has traveled over the state extensively since the close of school.
A number of comrades of A. Wilson turned out and made a chopping bee and in this way cut the sick comrade's winter wood. Mr. Wilson is slowly improving.
Mr. and Mrs. Brenn, recently from Bloomington, Illinois, were in town Sunday. Mr. Brenn is a barber and was looking over the field with a view of locating.
Pearl Hedges took very ill while at Newport, and for a while his condition was so serious as to cause the gravest alarm. He improved, however, and returned home this week.
Dr. O. D. Ireland and wife returned to their home in Portland Monday, after a few days' visit here. They had just returned from a several weeks' outing on the Nestucca.
W. M. Cornette, of Condon, Oregon, is renewing old acquaintances here, after an absence of 20 years. He is a pioneer of '47, and in '48 he located on a farm at McCoy, this county.
Mrs. F. A. Patterson and daughter, Miss Maude, left Friday for Washington, where they will visit both Nar and Will Patterson. Miss Patterson will teach in North Yakima again this winter.
Raymond Henkle has resigned his position with the Bennet drug company in San Francisco and is now in Portland. He is arranging to enter in business for himself, and may open a drug store in Idaho.—Corvallis Gazette.
All standard brands of tobaccos 45c a plug at Douty's.
Moore's Hair Invigorator and Herpicide are the world's greatest scalp cleansers and hair invigorators. Both are for sale at J. S. Moore's barber shop. Call and have Mr. Moore give an application of either remedy and you will never be without one or the other.
New fall line of dry goods just arrived at Douty's.
Services will be resumed at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Sabbath school at 10 A. M. Preaching at the usual hours. Topics of interest to all. Mrs. Conkey will assist in music. A very kind welcome is extended to all.

Hop Pickers Wants

We are in a special favorable position to furnish hop yard stores with anything in the tobacco and cigar line. Such as Star Tobacco, Exports, Arthurettes, Geo. W. Childs we can make you a special price.

Harry E. Wagoner,
Confectioner, Independence, Ore.

New arrival of best calicos, 5c per yard at Douty's.
16 acres of land suburbs of Monmouth for $1000. All cultivated land. G. A. Hurley.
The first sale of hops in this section was made by Henry Hill. He sold his crop of early variety at 20 cents per pound.
Finest line of winter millinery ever brought to Independence will be on display at Mrs. Wallace's Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12.
A petition is being circulated to gain signatures for a county road to Sidney. It will tap a large stretch of territory, and the request should be granted.
W. P. Ireland, who lives south of Monmouth, had a hand badly lacerated by receiving the contents of a gopher gun. Mr. Ireland has two sons who had hands injured with guns. They seem to be an unlucky family with firearms of any kind.
Something is pretty rotten when a man can get on a tear and after the marshal deputizes several individuals in order to place him under arrest and then nothing is done in the way of prosecution. It is the duty of our officers to see that something is done in such cases as this. No use to make arrests if no penalty is inflicted.
Jerome Dornisife has returned from San Francisco, and that isn't all. At the home of W. P. Connaway, in Vancouver, Wash., on Wednesday, the 2nd inst, he and Mrs. Baughman, of Monmouth, were united in marriage. They arrived here about 11 o'clock last evening, and have gone to housekeeping.
Services at the M. E. church next Sunday at the usual hours. Everybody invited. Subjects: Morning: "Every Man Put to Death for His Own Sin." Evening: "Is the Lord's Hand Shortened" Services at Buena Vista at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Wednesday, Sept. 9th, the Rev. T. R. Ford, D. D., of Eugene, will preach at the Buena Vista church in the evening at 8 o'clock. All the members and friends are urgently requested to be present. Matters of deep importance are to be presented and settled. Everybody come W. W. Edmondson, pastor.

The orchestra gave the 2nd dance of the season Saturday evening.
The Misses Smith, of Monmouth, returned from Newport Wednesday.
80 acres of oak grub land for sale at $800. This is a bargain. G. A. Hurley.
Ivan Wood, who has been in the Walla Walla country for several weeks, returned home Saturday evening.
There is a law in Independence against chickens running at large at this time of year, but that, like several others, are just to look good on paper.
Hop-picking is well started, although nearly every grower reports a shortage of pickers. Mold is not so prevalent as was reported, and the prospect of a good crop of splendid hops seems assured.
The partnership heretofore existing between Cooper & Hurley was dissolved by mutual consent September 1st. G. A. Hurley continues the real estate, insurance and law business in the office next door to Independence ENTERPRISE.
Yours sincerely,
G. A. HURLEY.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...
Painless Extraction & Specialty. Cooper Building, Independence, Ore.

OSCAR HAYTER,
Attorney-at-Law,
CAMPBELL BUILDING,
DALLAS, OREGON.

G. A. HURLEY,
Attorney at Law and
Notary Public.
Collections Promptly Made—Titles Investigated.
East Side Main Street,
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.

J. S. MOORE,
Tonsorial Artist.
Only first-class workmen employed in the "Wigwag" Shop situated on North side of C Street.