J. L. Coutu and wife are to leave Buena Vista immediately after hop picking. Their future home is to be at Gervais. Their property here was sold last week to Joe Polly, of Alsea, who will occupy it in a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Coutu have resided in Buena for years, Mr. Coutu having conducted a general merchandise store here for a long time retiring from the business in March, 1901. Many friends of the worthy pair wish them peace and plenty in their new home.

Mr. Picket and son, Harry, were at work one day last week, out near the Luckiamute bridge. They left the wagon, leaving the lines slack for a moment and without stopping for a word of farewell or other sign of sorrow the team at once started for home. The pace they set was too swift for their drivers, who came into town afoot, quite a while after the over-turned wagon had been set up and the jaded team taken to their stable. The wagon box was considerably demolished. The race course of the team was over two miles long.

A Pleasant Farewell.

Special from Maple Grove.

Last Friday evening was one that many of our neighbors will long remember with pleasure, while cherished recollections will cluster around the "Walls of Memory" of our estimable neighbor, J. W. White and family.

On the evening stated, according to previous arrangements, about sixty of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. White, met at a point designated and marched in on them by storm to show our appreciation to them, who, today, left for their new home in Oklahoma.

Mr. White has exchanged his farm here with a Mr. Hosington for a farm in the peanut state, and will soon be among his old friends from where he came.

While we regret to have to be called upon to give up such an estimable family as Mr. and Mrs. White, we are pleased to welcome to our midst the family of Mr. Hosington, and all will join in giving them a cordial welcome.

The evening was spent in social conversation, charades and games of various kinds, after which a light repast was served. In the closing hour came the sad farewell. The host, to a call for a speech, responded in his free and easy manner. Rev. Haynes made some very appropriate remarks, after which we bade Mr. and Mrs.

White goodbye and wished them God speed and a safe journey to their new home.

May many summers pass over the heads of this estimable family, and ere long find them safely moored again in old Oregon among the red apples and the butterflies.

Education

Demands Consideration

There are two kinds—practical and ornamental. The former should be secured by everyone, because it may be put to use quickly. The latter is desirable, but the former is essential. Our courses are arranged with a view to usefulness. We do not dabble in a little of everything, but devote our energies to conducting a first-class business school, living expenses low. Send for catalogue.
