A Word of Farewell.

This week we, the Buena Vista correspondent, depart from Polk county, to again take up our residence in old Benton. In separation there is always a element of sadness in breaking up a home and in leaving old associations there is always a suggestion of the hour when the most sacred home will be broken up by the passing of its inmates, and the most blessed ties be broken by the call of the Death Angel.

One of our keenest regrets in departing from Polk county is the severing of our relations with the INDEPENDENCE ENTERPRISE. Our newspaper work here has been most pleasant as well as profitable, to us and we abandon it with sincere regret. We hope an abler pen than ours may take up the work that we now lay aside from reason stated.

We desire in this parting hour to thank all who have shown us favors in our journalistic work in Buena Vista; to thank most earnestly the editor for all courtesies and kindnesses, and to wish for the ENTER-

Don't forget that it's "Ayer's" Sarsaparilla that will make you strong and hopeful. Don't waste your time and money by trying some other kind. Use the old, tested, tried, and true Ayer's Sarsaparilla. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
