

Mrs. May Bowden-Babbitt,

(Pupil of Arthur Foote, of Boston)

...Teacher of...

Piano, Organ, Vocal, Harmony and Theory

Will accept a class for the winter. Rates on application.

Social and Personal.

3 cans corn 25 cents at Knox's.

All kinds of stock hogs for sale, Henry Hill.

Miss Florence Wagoner was in Salem Tuesday.

Miss Florence Burton spent Sunday in Corvallis.

2 large loaves bread for 5 cents at Knox's.

No. 1 Bacon 14 cents per pound at Knox's.

All package Coffee 2 packages for 25 cents at Knox's.

Largest, finest up-to-date undertakers' goods at Jasperson's.

Mrs. O. D. Butler returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland.

Miss Bessie Butler, who has been clerking in Salem, returned home Tuesday.

Vetch seed for sale in any quantity. Enquire of U. G. Hefley Monmouth.

Vetch seed for sale. Order early. Supply limited. T. J. Pettit, Monmouth, Ore.

Prices that tell—Goods that sell. See Cole's Air Tight heaters at R. M. Wade & Co's.

For the best apple and prune boxes go to J. S. Bohanon's in any quality.

Miss Vanche Dickinson, of this city, will teach in the Seattle schools this winter.

3 packages of 2 1/2 pounds each of Premium Breakfast Mush for 25 cents at Knox's.

Miss Dorothy Cooper left Saturday for Centralia, Wash., where she teaches this winter.

Miss Mary Scott, of Independence, was a new student to arrive yesterday—Eugene Register.

Mrs. Warren Cressy, of South Bend, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abel Uglov, of Dallas.

One-half gallon, Columbia Pan Cake Drip Syrup 25 cents. One-gallon 40 cents at Knox's.

The Monarch Malleable Range is something new in stove construction. R. M. Wade & Co. sell them.

William Riddle has been an elder of the Presbyterian church of this city for over 22 consecutive years.

Farm for sale or rent. 133 acres, one mile and half south of Monmouth. Enquire of H. Best, Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Taylor and daughter, Miss Bessie, returned the latter part of the week from a trip to Portland.

Every fellow that has cash is on the wholesale jobbers list at Dou-ty's store now and if you buy a big bill you buy cheaper than jobbers.

3 cans tomatoes 25 cents at Knox's.

Cattle and goats for sale. Cricket Bevens, Airlie, Ore.

John Sumpter was a passenger Monday to Walker, Ore., called there by the dangerous illness of a son.

Geo. Garrens, who was arrested last week for selling liquor to Indians, pleaded guilty and was fined last week.

Robert Lansfield, son and daughter, of Amity, who have been in Monmouth several days, returned home Sunday.

Mr. Baker, the photographer at the Picket gallery, is turning out the best work ever seen in the county. Prices right.

Jasperson buys his undertakers' goods whenever spot cash will secure goods to best advantage for himself and his customers.

Rev. S. J. Lindsay will preach at Lewisville church on Sunday at 11 A. M.; at Montgomery at 3 P. M.; and at Elkins at 7:30 P. M.

Harold Belt, a former Independence boy, passed through town Sunday morning en route from Centralia, Wash., to Corvallis.

Mrs. J. W. Baldwin, who has been visiting Mrs. Hardenbrook and Mrs. Tuck, returned to her home, near Aberdeen, Wash., Friday.

It seems a pity to sacrifice so large and complete a stock of goods and at such ruinous prices as the Dou-ty store is being closed out at; but he is determined to close his business here out at once and is making the prices do it.

Dou-ty's great big ad in this week's issue don't say very much, but it means a whole lot. At least $5000.00 will be sacrificed on this stock, under cost. Its an opportunity that don't often occur to buy such goods at jobbing prices and less.

Moore's Hair Invigorator and Herpicide are the world's greatest scalp cleansers and hair invigorators. Both are for sale at J. S. Moore's barber shop. Call and have Mr. Moore give an application of either remedy and you will never be without one or the other.

WE SELL
CHASE & SANBORN'S
FAMOUS
BOSTON
COFFEES

Star Grocery.

Rev. T. P. Haynes, of Louisville, has returned from Roseburg, where the state conference assigned him to another year's work in Polk county.

Thornton Hayner, son of Rev. T. P. Haynes, of Louisville, had his foot badly crushed last week. He was brought to Independence for proper treatment.

The last of the hop-yards finished picking last week, and now the growers are busy conferring with buyers in regard to prices and quality. Between 22 and 24 cents are the ruling figures.

Dr. W. C. Brown is now located at Narrows, Harney county, where he will spend the winter. Doc's health is much improved by the invigorating Eastern Oregon climate.

We are in receipt of a copy of The Jerseyman, published at Morristown, New Jersey, in which is contained a lengthy notice of the twentieth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Murgatroyd, former residents of Independence.

The two page ad in this issue will likely not escape the eye of bargain hunters, as it presents an unusual opportunity to purchase fall and winter goods at a big saving in hard earned wages. Early buying will insure the best selections of sizes.

M. Mix had a runaway Saturday. He was thrown from the buggy and considerably bruised up. Two of his small children, seated in the buggy, were unhurt, notwithstanding the vehicle was badly broken up. Their escape seems marvelous.

The Independence public school opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 235, or 45 more than on the first morning last year. Over 40 pupils enrolled, carrying with them certificates of other schools. The year's work opens auspiciously for the best year's work ever performed by our school.

Next Sabbath is Rally Day at the Presbyterian church. Special program of services for both Sabbath school and church will be presented. A most earnest request is extended to every member of the Sabbath school, church and congregation to be present and participate in the exercises. Communion at the close of the morning service. "Come for all things are ready."

Col. Dick Alexander, who is a brother of James Alexander, of Independence, and who lives in Kentucky within a few miles of where the writer was born and raised, has a jug of whisky which his grandfather made 100 years ago. It will be opened next week and a multitude of Kentucky gentlemen out west will smack their lips at the very thought of it.—Dallas Itemizer.

Harold Belt came in Sunday from Aberdeen, Wash., where he has been pitching this summer for the ball team at that place. After visiting a few days with his folks in Corvallis, he will return to Aberdeen. Harold has been developing into a first class twirler, and will in the spring try and get in on one of the big coast leagues.—Corvallis Gazette.

Miss Nellie Burke, one of the public school teachers, returned Sunday from a summer's vacation.

Stationery

Carries a recommendation with it. The receiver of a letter written on such Stationery as we handle reflects favorably on the writer, while poor stationery carries with it an impression of untidiness and a lack of system in one's work.

Recently we have added some of the very latest of the day lines to our already very complete stock. We feel assured that the most fastidious can be satisfied in a selection from our stock. At any rate it will do you good to examine it, whether you purchase or not.

Harry E. Wagoner,
Stationer, Independence, Ore.

The Dou-ty store in Independence will soon be a thing of the past as it is to be closed out at auction and private sale in a hurry. The building and fixtures are offered for sale or lease at a bargain which no doubt will be taken by some new firm before long, as it leaves a good business opening.

A Mr. Saltmarsh, from Lebanon, was found dead Friday morning at Horst Bros. yard. He had driven down after his family, and on retiring about the midnight hour, he appeared in his usual good health. There was no question but heart trouble caused his death.

Work in the E. A. degree at the regular meeting of Lyon Lodge No. 29, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening. All visiting Masons are cordially invited to attend. By order W. M.

Josse & Bice have purchased the Whiteaker building, which they now occupy, for $1510. The sale was made Saturday.

Roy DeArmond is attending the Capital Business College, Salem. Perle Locke and Lawrence Simon will both enter the same institution soon.

Senator Doughty, who is stopping in Portland, returned to the metropolis Monday, having visited a few days in Monmouth.

The Kirkland residence, formerly the Goodman house, is being repainted.

The residence of H. H. Wagoner has recently been repainted.

J. M. Tedrow's moved last week to Corvallis for the winter.

Kleber Wood and wife are Dallas residents now. Mrs. Wood will teach in Dallas this winter.

Raymond Henkle left Tuesday for San Jose, Cal., to remain indefinitely.—Corvallis Gazette.

T. D. Campbell, who has been Washington county operating threshing machine, returned Friday.

A. J. Goodman and family moved this week to the rooms at E. E. Paddock's store.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. R. ALLIN, D. D. S.
...Dentist...
Painless Extraction
a Specialty. Cooper Building
Independence

OSCAR HAYTER,
Attorney-at-Law,
CAMPBELL BUILDING,
DALLAS, OREGON

G. A. HURLEY,
Attorney at Law and Notary Public.

Collections Promptly Made—Investigated.

East Side Main Street,
INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

J. S. MOORE,
Tonsorial Artist.

Only first-class workmen employed in the "Wigwam," situated on North side of C St.

Tooth Brushes!

A special sale this week of a select stock of imported tooth-brushes. During this sale.

50c Brushes will be.....	40c
45c " " ".....	35c
40c " " ".....	30c
35c " " ".....	25c
30c " " ".....	20c
25c " " ".....	15c
20c " " ".....	10c

A. S. LOCKE,
Prescription Druggist, Independence.