Confession of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, for 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years. If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by A. S. Locke. Only 50c.

Our Trip to Mt. Hood View.

Special from Parker. On Sunday morning bright and early we started on our trip to Mt. Hood View. The day dawned cold and cloudy; but the murky skies and threatening showers failed to dampen our enthusiasm, or to cause us to postpone our intended visit. And when Mr. Fuqua drove down in the big wagon with a goodly supply of spring seats, and wraps and umbrellas too numerous to mention, there was not one of our crowd who was not willing and anxious to start. And when once fairly started there was no turning back. We made rapid progress over the rain soaked roads and about 10 o'clock A. M. we realized that we were rapidly nearing our destination, which was destined to be the Mt. Hood farm, which is owned and occupied by our friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Calbreath. Just before reaching Mr. Calbreath's we stopped to admire the adjoining farm which belongs to Mr. Riddle. This farm comprises one of the most beautiful country homes that adorn this section of Polk county. The beautiful, modern dwelling house, surrounded by artistic beds of flowers; the large, commodious out buildings accompanied by the general air of neatness which pervaded these premises, speak all too plainly of the refined tastes of the inhabitants of this most beautiful country home. Mr. Riddle also possesses some very fine stock which is another very attractive feature of this farm. Mr. Calbreath's live about a mile from Mr. Riddle's, so we journey on to our destination.

We arrive at about 10:45 A. M., and after a hearty welcome from the kind hostess we are ushered into a nice, cozy room with a cheerful fire burning in an open grate. All who may have enjoyed the kind hospitality of these friends of ours know that they are not lacking in any of the qualities that compose the aggregate of royal entertainers. At high noon a most appetizing banquet was spread in the spacious dining room, and we feasted royally. The afternoon was spent in viewing the most important features of the farm interspersed with an occasional game of chess or a visit to the grape arbor near by.

From an elevation west of the house we viewed the towns of Monmouth and Independence, and the tall spires of the state building at Salem were also discernible, while the snow-clad peaks of old Mt. Jefferson rose grandly and majestically in the distance. At 3 P. M. we departed for our homes, bearing with us the remembrance of a most pleasant visit. And altogether we do not remember spending a more pleasant day than the one we so much enjoyed at Mt. Hood View. Besides our kind host and hostess our merry party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fuqua and daughter, Velena, Mrs. Mary Kerr and Maggie and Walter Kerr, Miss Lura Critchlow, and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Swink and daughter, Mabel.
