A pleasant feature of Hallowe'en's evening was the organization of a young ladies club, and in the absence of a better name let's call it the "Independence Order of Holy Rollers." The young ladies assembled at the home of Miss Mary Clodfelter, where an organization was perfected. Later they celebrated the "topsy turvey" evening by serenading various houses. Returning to Miss Clodfelter's home, they were entertained at luncheon, and passed a few moments longer as the guests of this clever young lady. Next week another member of the club will entertain and so on through the rounds.

Air-Tight Heaters
Base Heating Stoves for Wood

The laws of health tell us to keep our feet warm and our head cool. Other Air-Tights force heat upwards to your head, and to the ceiling where it is not needed. Heat rises and never goes down of its own accord. The Sellmore forces heat down to your feet and to the floor where it is most needed. Then as it rises to the ceiling it warms the room uniformly, that is why they use less than one-half the fuel required by other Air-Tights.
