Social and Personal.

D. Calbreath has reshingled his residence.

Y. A. Gray returned Saturday from a trip to Portland.

The Bankrupt store moved back to Albany this week.

Miss Quasdorf is improving, though her illness remains critical.

Wells bored at 25 cents a foot. Enquire of N. E. Tyler, Buena Vista, Ore.

A. F. Campbell, of Monmouth, was a passenger to Portland Sunday afternoon.

Wood tooth picks to close out 2 boxes for 5 cents. Regular 5 cents at Wagoner's

Mrs. S. E. Owen was a passenger Saturday to the coast, for a visit with a sister there.

J. M. Tedrow was a passenger to Corvallis Saturday, after a brief hunt in these parts.

Frank Butler, of Falls City, completed the survey of the town Friday and returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Meeker left Thursday for the sound, where they will spend the winter.

Rev. B. J. Kelly and family moved Saturday to Portland, where they will reside in the future.

For Sale—Registered Berkshire brood sow. Enquire of G. C. Bolter, 5 1/2 miles south of Independence.

Rev. Wigmore will fill the pulpit at the Christian church both Sunday morning and evening. All are invited.

Perle Locke, who is attending business college in Salem, spent several days with his parents here this week.

C. H. Teal and family, who were residents at Talmage for several years, are now located at Goldendale, Wash.

Glenn Goodman, Sam Damon, Tom Fitchard and the Walker boys, all attending school at Corvallis, spent Sunday here.

S. H. Baldwin has completed moving from the Ruef farm, south of Independence, to the Cass Gibson ranch near Rickreall.

The Emma B. Lee property east of the M. E. church is much improved in appearance since it has been treated to a coat of paint.

The condition of F. A. Patterson, who was operated upon in Portland last week, is gradually improving and it is thought he can return home in a few days.

J. H. Hawley & Son, McCoy, Oregon, writes that they have had splendid good fortune with their Lincoln sheep, in selling every thing out, in both ewes and rams.—Rural Spirit.

The west part of town has been undergoing considerable improvement lately. Geo. Wilson has recently built a barn and other improvements about the premises; the Morgan place has been sold to W. H. Quibey and he with his family have moved into the same; H. Mattison has put up a windmill and tank, and other premises in that neighborhood have been substantially improved.

The Independence Improvement League should resume its winter work at once. It has a great service to perform for the good of Independence and its fine work was evident in many ways this spring.

R. H. McCarter, of Buena Vista, sold his hops last week to Ed Herren, of Salem. The price paid was 22 1/2 cents per pound, a figure few have realized so far. Mr. McCarter's hops were first-class in every respect.

The dance at the Auditorium Saturday evening promises to be a hummer. We have changed to a larger hall, so as to accommodate a larger crowd, and from all points around comes word of a large attendance. You are cordially invited. Independence Orchestra.

Hallowe'en was observed in Independence by the usual number of pranks. Wood piles were molested, and vehicles were changed to other locations. However, all that was done was in the spirit of innocent amusement, and nothing of a criminal nature was perpetrated.

J. B. Stump, of Monmouth, says the year has been a very satisfactory one to him in the live stock trade. He has disposed of all his surplus stock at good figures. What he has left are doing well, and will go into winter quarters in the best of condition. One of the best sales made was 119 bucks to Alex. Donaldson, of Beekton, Wyoming.—Rural Spirit.

A Successful Teacher.

Special from Parker.
Miss Frances Helmick, one of Parker's most industrious and intelligent young ladies, has again accepted the position of teacher in Linn county. Miss Frances has taught several terms of school in Linn county, and the efficiency of her work is demonstrated by the earnest desire of the members of the school board to re-employ her in the schools, where she had taught for several months.

She is a graduate of the Mineral Springs college, is exceptionally assiduous along the line of her chosen profession, and especially deserves the approbation of the public both as a lady and as an instructor.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by A. S. Locke, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free
