Not what you pay for
Coffee, but what
Coffee pays you.

There are two values to every article,—what it costs and what it's worth.

Cork costs 8 cents a pound, but if you are drowning half a mile from shore, its value would be "not what you pay for cork but what cork pays you."

You are not drowning, but you are using up strength and vitality in your daily work. You are getting back that strength and vitality in part from your morning cup of coffee.

It makes little difference what you pay for it; the important question is "What does it pay you?" You can see the strength you have, but you can't see the increased strength you would get if you drank

"High Grade"
COFFEE.

This is a fact! You can easily test its truth. It will cost you one pound of coffee—that's all!

The Best Remedy For Croup.

[From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.]

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Kirkland Drug Co.

The Independence public school football team played a similar organization from McMinnville Saturday afternoon on the grounds south of town. The game was a scoreless one, and was played on a field that was soaked with water. The boys here were deprived of the services of some their best players or they would probably have won. The McMinnville boys are young gentlemen and it is hoped they may play in town again this season.
