Best Liniment On Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Supt. City Water Works, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: 'I have tried many kinds of liniment, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth.' Price, 50c, $1.00. For sale by A. S. Locke.

Lloyd Mason has purchased property in the Damon and Haley addition to Monmouth. He has also bought the McGarty house of Mr. Chute and will move the same to his newly acquired lots.

C. W. Allen, agent for the week-S. F. Examiner, was in our town last week working it for subscriptions.

S. O. Work has quit work at Falls City and is at home.

Rev. S. A. Siewert and wife were in Salem last week. He also attended the Y. P. A. Convention in Portland, his wife visiting in Salem.

Wm. McMillan, who lives north of town, is quite poorly. It is hoped his recovery may be speedy and permanent.

John McMillan's broken arm is getting along nicely. He said it is better than a dozen boxed-up arms yet.

W. M. O'Kelly has decided to stay at Monmouth and not return to Washington.

It seems our sister towns are scarce of houses for the people to live in. That is a good sign. Monmouth has about nine vacant houses, so send all those you cannot accommodate over.

Miss Adona O'Kelly has entered the O. S. N. S. She has been a student at a sister's school in Washington.

There were three new members at the Evangelical church Sunday.

At Pullman, Washington, Mrs. Emma Conyers died on Friday, November 6th, of cancer. She was a devoted Christian and leaves besides her husband an aged mother and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. Her remains were brought to Monmouth for interment.

Normal Notes.

President Resler returned from a trip to Hillsboro Monday and brought greetings from several Normal graduates.

Professor Campbell and family were in Portland for three days last week where they met relatives and enjoyed a family reunion. During his absence Professors Robinson and Powell had charge of his class.

The new well is nearly completed and soon there will be sufficient water in the bath rooms of the gymnasium.

Prof. Adrien of Berkley, Cal., was a guest last Monday and Tuesday. He visited several of the class rooms in both the Normal and Training Department.

Tuesday morning he gave a most interesting lecture on the subject, "A Day in Congress." He graphically described the scenes witnessed, and the impressions experienced during a visit to the Capital of our nation in time of war. The first recitation of the day was dispensed with in order to give the students and faculty the pleasure of listening to him.

At the writing of these notes a confused mingling of bells, songs, shouts, and occasional pistol shots is borne on the air. This means that one of the instructors has taken to himself a wife, and the young people are emphasizing the fact. Mr. Truman Allen and Miss Anna Grimesley have decided to solve the problem of life together. We wish them much happiness.

LITTLE LUCKIAMUTE.

N. Steele was an Independence visitor Saturday.

Rev. J. A. Lindsay preached at Fair View Sunday.

Al McCarty, while out at J. A. Tetherow's taking a hunt, let his gun go off accidentally, shooting Joe's favorite dog in the leg.

Grandpa Prose died Wednesday, November 4th. He had been visiting with J. M. Haggard most of the day, and when he returned home in the evening he complained of feeling very bad and said that he must have a doctor. There being no one with him but Mrs. Prose, she went to get a neighbor to go after a physician. When she returned Mr. Prose was dead. He was laid to rest in the Smith cemetery. With the death of Grandpa Prose we lose from our midst one of our best citizens.

Are you going to call on her? Then take a box of Wagoner's fine candies.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE

Photographs Cheap

The past season we made several hundred photographs for Art Calendars, and now any person who wishes a duplicate photograph from any of the old plates can secure them at a greatly reduced figure. This offer is only open for the next sixty days, and it will pay you to come at once before the Christmas rush.

Pickel's Negatives

Remember, I have in stock all of the negatives taken by E. Pickel at his gallery in this city. If you wish photographs from any of the old plates it will be to your interest to call at once, as I shall probably not keep them in stock any great length of time.

Enlarging Pictures

I am prepared to enlarge any photograph and furnish frame for same at a very reasonable figure. I stand back of the guarantee that no pictures will be lost and that satisfaction is guaranteed in each and every instance. Call and inspect my work.

The lights were on for a while last week, but owing to the insufficient capacity of the wheel a new one had to be secured from Portland. It has not been successfully installed as yet, but a night or so will probably see it working properly.

Two parties were in Independence this week with a view of locating a 30,000 foot saw mill. The men are both practical mill men and are looking for a site where a mill can be located advantageously. They prefer a location where they can secure logs both by water and rail. There is an excellent opportunity for Independence to secure a mill that will have a good pay roll. The proposition was not met as it should have been by our citizens.

The Lewis and Clark Division met in the parlors of the Fire Department on Wednesday afternoon and elected officers as follows: Mrs. A. J. Goodman, President; Mrs. J.

S. Cooper, 1st Vice President; Mrs. O. D. Butler, 2nd Vice Pres; Mrs. J. E. Hubbard, 3rd Vice Pres; Miss Florence Wagoner, Secy; Mrs. S. E. Owen, Treasurer. Expressions of appreciation were general for the kindness of the city council and the Fire Department have shown the ladies in allowing them the City Hall for their meetings. Plans are on foot for interesting work and a spirit of enthusiasm is manifest.

Celebrate Their Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Special Correspondence.

On last Saturday evening, October 31, 1903, a host of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cockle, it being their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. It was a complete surprise to the host and hostess, as they did not know of anyone's presence until the rooms were filled to overflowing with happy, laughing faces. The evening was spent in playing games, singing and instrumental music. At a late hour a most delicious lunch was served, which consisted of the delicacies of a farmer's table.

The names of those present are: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cockle, Fred, Roy, Sadie and Olive Cockle, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen, Mr. Wm. Cockle, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cockle, Mr. and Mrs. D. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. D. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Helmick and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Metzler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Withrow and family, Mr. Edd and Daisy Steele, and Miss Josie Woods.

Quite a number of useful and appropriate presents were given.

MRS. CECILIA STOWE,
Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.
For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weakness and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

HOW YOU STAND.
