BUENA VISTA.

Miss Bertha Rowe was home on a visit last week.

E. N. Hall was a business visitor to Independence Saturday.

Jacob Nash is making some improvements on Eston Beven's house.

Mrs. Mary Davidson, of Highland, was a business visitor to Buena Saturday.

Melvin Baldwin has returned to Buena Vista from Winlock, Wash., for the winter.

Mrs. V. B. Goin was a passenger to Salem on the Pomona Thursday, returning Saturday night.

M. Cooper was a passenger to Albany on the boat Saturday night, returning Monday morning.

The rest of the new seats for the school house arrived Tuesday and were put down by the board on Wednesday. Both rooms now have entirely new seats.

Harvey Nash and Clarence Kays have taken the contract to catch the logs which broke loose from Strong's mill at Corvallis.

Three men came down the river from Corvallis Thursday, on the hunt of logs which broke loose from Strong's mill during the raise.

On Saturday evening the young people gave the Nash brothers a surprise party. Quite a number of young folks were present. At eleven o'clock the young folks separated to their respective homes.

Constipation.

Health is absolutely impossible, if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes, Feb. 12, 1902: "Having tried Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." 50c bottle. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Normal Notes.

Members of the school and the citizens of the town have learned with deep regret of the serious illness of President French of Weston.

New students are still entering the Normal, and there will probably be several who will enroll at the beginning of the next term, November 23rd.

Misses Hull, Brown, Cooper, Marvel, Whealdon, Daniel, Baird, Dalton, Cox, Matthews attended the Convention of the Y. W. C. A. held at Albany. They report a most earnest meeting.

This is the week of prayer for missions, observed all over the world by Christian associations. The Y. W. C. A. in the Normal is holding daily meetings at noon, in room four.

The senior rhetoricals, Thursday morning was given by the Misses Kruse, White, and Auten. The subject of Miss Kruse's essay was "Famous Streets", and of Miss Auten's, "How United States Senators are Elected." Miss White recited the beautiful "Legend of Bregenz."

On Friday evening the Invincible Society departed from the usual custom in its program. It had an evening with Longfellow; all the numbers were taken from his works or was written about him. This society has made its room more attractive by some tasteful decorations.

The Normal foot ball men met the team from McMinnville College Saturday afternoon on the home grounds. The score resulted in five to ten in favor of McMinnville. The Young Ladies' Athletic Association gave a reception in the evening to the Young Men's Athletic Association and the visitors.

Professor Buckham addressed the students Tuesday morning, November tenth, taking for his subject, "The Post Office." He contrasted the post office of to day with the one a hundred years ago.

President Ressler and Professor Rice of the Training Department spent Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at the institute in Dallas. The former had charge of the music and gave talks during each session and a lecture on Thursday evening.

As a number of the students wished to attend the institute on Friday, no school was held. A special motor was procured, making it possible to go to Dallas in the morning and returning in the evening. Over sixty attended, including instructors and students. Many of the students took lunches and had a picnic dinner in the court-house.

The many friends of Mr. French will be glad to learn that he is recovering from his recent dangerous illness.

Miss May Dean and Mr. Harry Belt, of the Ballston school, spent Sunday in Monmouth visiting relatives and friends.

The Monmouth band gave a concert Friday evening, November thirteenth, after an enjoyable programme benches were put back and a social time was enjoyed.
