At present writing Mrs. W. S. Southwell is slowly recovering from a long sickness, which for a time gave indication of being fatal.

Though the wet weather is anything but agreeable for it, we still see claim holders passing through on their way to their homesteads.

A broken shaft caused some delay at the Bryan-Lucas saw mill last week and in consequence the planers got short of lumber to work on toward the end of the week.

Your typo made us say last week that Mrs. Seymour, on being taken sick, was removed to Springfield. It should have read Smithfield. We are glad to report her better.

Hans Schneider is getting a trifle radical. He says: "Nodings help so mooch beoples co to Hell ash de viskey and peer and nodings make de Devil laff so loud ash ven he see de schurch memper und de schloon keeper vote shoost all de same."

The Best Remedy For Croup.

[From the Atchison, Kan., Daily Globe.]

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars. There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as hive syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker, and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by Kirkland Drug Co.

J. G. VanOrsdel, of Dallas, and Clarence Ireland and W. W. Percival, of Independence, were in Corvallis yesterday attending to some business affairs.—Corvallis Gazette.

Mrs. Etna Cook, of Portland, came up Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO SECURE

Photographs Cheap!

The past season we made several hundred photographs for Art Calendars, and now any person who wishes a duplicate photograph from any of the old plates can secure them at a greatly reduced figure. This offer is only open for the next sixty days, and it will pay you to come at once before the Christmas rush.

PicKel's Negatives

Remember, I have in stock all of the negatives taken by E. PicKel at his gallery in this city. If you wish photographs from any of the old plates it will be to your interest to call at once, as I shall probably not keep them in stock any great length of time.

Enlarging Pictures

I am prepared to enlarge any photograph and furnish frame for same at a very reasonable figure. I stand back of the guarantee that no pictures will be lost and that satisfaction is guaranteed in each and every instance. Call and inspect my work.

Death of Wm. McMillan.

William McMillan, a wealthy and respected farmer living near Monmouth, died Saturday night, as a result of general breaking down. He had been ailing for several months, and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. McMillan was about 80 years of age, and was a native of Scotland. He came to Canada in '73, later coming to the states and about four years ago came to Oregon from the Dakotas. He leaves a family.

Salt Well at Monmouth.

Says the Monmouth correspondent to the Evening Telegram: Extensive preparations are being made for putting in a salt plant at the well on the Whiteaker place, north of town, which was sunk for oil. The well is 1000 feet deep and a very strong flow of water, carrying great quantities of salt, was struck instead of oil. Experts have tested the water and say that an evaporating plant will pay handsomely.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c, at Locke's Drug Store.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Serges Dunder

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
