Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at A. S. Locke's drug store.

The Young Man Who Dresses Well

is often a man of small salary. He knows that it is important for him to appear neat and stylish, and he realizes that he cannot afford to pay the high prices charged by the "merchant tailor."

He has long ago solved the problem of how to dress in up-to-date apparel at a minimum cost by coming here and buying a Schloz-Made Suit bearing this famous hall-mark of sterling merit: They're ready the moment they're needed—they are fashionable, serviceable, and fit with the graceful swagger that a young man likes, and best of all, they are not costly.

The illustration shows two of the snappiest Spring styles. They are especially designed for young men of ultra tastes, and particularly those who want to be up-to-the-minute in style. The price range
