SURPRISE PARTY

The Friends of H. Christian Gave Him a Big Surprise Last Friday

Plowed, Harrowed and Planted Twenty-five Acres by Six O'clock. Other Interesting Items.

[SPECIAL TO WEST SIDE ENTERPRISE]

On last Friday the following young men with their implements of war, consisting of plows, harrows and seeders, made a grand charge on "Grandpa" Christian's farm for the purpose of tearing up his 25 acres of land, which they did to perfection, and had it seeded by six o'clock of the same day.

Thirteen teams, headed by Capt. C. J. DeArmond and the regulars being J. A. Withrow, W. D. Collins, A. Flickenger, R. L. Collins, O. M. Allen, O. J. Bagley, H. Maxfield, A. Ruef, E. E. DeArmond, G. Thurston, A. Tetherow and E. Chamberlin started into the field about seven o'clock, and the way the ground changed color was a caution. At noon "Father" Christian called a halt for dinner, which was prepared by Mrs. Christian and daughter, assisted by Mrs. E. Chamberlin. The table was loaded to overflowing, and the boys, after eating to their hearts content of the good things before them, pronounced Mrs. Christian the "Queen of Cooks." At 1 p. m. the order was given to march, which the boys did well pleased. Hitching up to their plows, harrows and seeders the grand march commenced and continued until six o'clock when they stacked arms all agreeing that it was the best day's work they had done for a long time and the most cheerfully given.
