

Death of Mrs. Huntley.

Fannie L. Huntley wife of Mr. Huntley died at her home in Independence Friday evening 6:30 o'clock after a protracted illness. Funeral services under direction of Dr. E. J. Thompson held at the family residence Sunday, in accordance with the last wish of Mrs. Huntley. Burial took place in O.O.F. cemetery.

Mrs. Huntley left many friends to mourn her loss in Polk county. She was born in St. Louis, Mo., May 8, 1844. At the age of 18 she was taken by her parents to West Moreland county, Pa. There she emigrated to California in 1859, settling in Yolo county. There in 1860 she was married to T. B. Huntley and in 1862 they came to Oregon and since been citizens of Independence. Mrs. Huntley was the mother of eight children six of whom are living, all in or near Independence. Chas. E. superintendent of the Polk county poor farm, T. lives on the Osborn place, Bennett L. George H. and J. Burnett live at the family home and William Wallace married living in Independence. Huntley was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Herbina

Overcome indigestion and dyspepsia, regulate the bowels and cure kidney complaints. It is the most enricher and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, harmless, and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it. If you are R. N. Andrews, editor of the Cocoa and Rockledge Cocoa, Fla., writes, I have used Herbina in my family and find it an excellent medicine. Its effects have been a marked benefit. I recommend it unhesitatingly. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Great preparations are on for the May festival of the Willamette Valley Choral Union to be held on May 17, 18 and 19. It will be the sixth annual convention of the Choral Union and the choruses of Albany, Corvallis, Eugene, Portland and Salem will take part. The singers will number more than a hundred. Among the soloists will be Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. Etta Squier Seley, Irving M. Glenn, J. W. Belcher and William P. Drew. One choral song will be "The Willamette," a beautiful setting of Sam Simpson's famous poem by Father Dominic of Mt. Angel.

A Government census bureau bulletin recently issued gives the estimated population of the United States for 1903, exclusive of Alaska and the insular possessions of the United States, at 79,900,389. This is an increase of 2,039,014 since the census of 1900. The population is estimated for 438 cities having 10,000 or more inhabitants in 1900. According to these estimates, New York is now a city of 3,716,139 inhabitants; Chicago has 1,873,830; Philadelphia, 1,367,716. St. Louis has just passed, and Boston has almost reached the 600,000 mark. San Francisco and Pittsburgh are close competitors, the former having 355,991 and the latter 345,943.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremont, Texas writes, April 12, 1902, I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used. 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by A. S. Locke.

Stray Sheep.

There are thirteen stray sheep at my place. The owner will please call and settle the bill.

Jacob Becker.

Exposure

To cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds. Ballard's Horehound syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Texas, writes, Jan. 31, 1902: One bottle of Ballard's Horehound syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by A. S. Locke.

BUENA VISTA ACADEMY

School Closes the Twenty-Seventh of May With Five in the Graduating Class.

(BUENA VISTA SPECIAL.)

After a successful eight months term of school the Buena Vista academy will close the 27th of the present month. Five graduates will receive diplomas, as follows: Tressa Prather, Jimmie Wash, Walter Wells, Willie Getty and Royal Krenz. A program of unusual interest is being prepared for the closing evening, features of special attractiveness being a wand drill and a motion song, by members of the school. The present term of school in Buena has been highly gratifying to both pupils and patrons. Prof. V. B. Goin, who has charge, is an able and efficient instructor, while Miss Mae Smith the assistant, has proven herself both competent and popular, and has added much to the success of the past season's school term.

Buena Vista has a band conducted by Frank McReynolds the popular merchant. Practice twice a week is rapidly rounding out the latent talent of the various players, and the music produced by the aggregation is equal to that of the average band in a country town.

The Evangelical Aid Society had a delightful meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, Wednesday. The day was spent in pleasant and profitable employment, and at noon a delicious dinner was served by the hostess.

Work in the numerous hop yards of this vicinity is being prosecuted with commendable zeal. Yards are looking well and the hops show a thrifty growth.

William Murphy returned Thursday from a month's visit to points in the east. He visited Omaha and found the weather such as to hasten his return to Webfoot.

Miss M. J. Lee has just finished setting out three and one-half acres of strawberry plants and 200 Logan berry vines on her ten-acre ranch in Buena Vista.

Miss Anna Pagenkopf of Albany and Mrs. Gus Pagenkopf of Buena were guests from Thursday until Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Will Morrison of Pedee.

J. J. Whitney, democratic candidate for district attorney, spoke at Buena Vista Monday night. A good crowd cheered his effort.

Mrs. Sarah Baldwin and Mrs. Melvin Baldwin visited relatives near Dixie Thursday.

Mrs. Mose Milner of Linn county is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hall.

Mrs. J. H. Knighten and Mrs. John Baldwin visited in Monmouth last week.

Misses Nora Cusick and Alice Knighten were Salem visitors Thursday.

Arthur Porter has just purchased a handsome buggy of McReynolds Brothers.

Harley Hall and family of Corvallis visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Mary Wilson of Portland is visiting relatives here.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Thompson are visiting at Amity.

Made Young Again.

One of Dr. King's new life pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again, writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for liver, stomach and bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at A. S. Locke's drug store.

Among the special features to be seen in "Faust, or Why Women Sin" is the great transformation scene of Faust passing from old age to youth by the aid of Satan.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt of No. Mehoopany, Pa. made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, a patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at A. S. Locke's.
