THE LARGEST AUDIENCE THAT HAS CROWDED THE OPERA HOUSE FOR MANY A DAY GREETED MISS CORA SMITH AND HER COMPANY Monday evening to hear the production of Faust.

Miss Smith is very popular in Independence, having resided here at the home of her father, W. P. Conaway for a number of years before engaging in the theatrical business. The people here are anxious to honor her and none were disappointed. Her performance of "Faust" there are many who are of the opinion that give a better interpretation than Miss Snell. Her voice while not the strongest made up in musical sweetness for anything that may be lacking in volume. She possesses the Anna Held style of eyes and knows how to use them. Alfred Aldridge was her support as "Faust" and his performance is a creditable interpretation of the character. The Mephisto of the play was represented by Frank C. Jones, who succeeded in making the audience hate him for his devilishness.

The company played under the disadvantage of a lack of electrical effects by reason of being unable to connect with the electrical current, but like professionals, did the best they could under the circumstances.

Tuesday and Wednesday nights the company played to crowded houses in Dallas and by request will play a return engagement in Independence Friday night.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pa. At times she was unable to get up in the morning and at other times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of pain balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with for sale by all druggists.

Dragging Pains

225 Keeley St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 2, 1903.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for I had tried all I had ever tried and failed. But I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood, renewed course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches. When all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

The advice is given regarding special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
