

Social and Personal.

Miss Grace Damon of Salem spent Tuesday night with her parents.

Mrs. A. T. Merwin and daughter Miss Mabel of Baker City are making an extended visit at the home of Marsh Merwin.

If you want to see Monmouth do Salem to a brown finish, if she can, attend the ball game at the Normal grounds Saturday.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will conduct a lunch and refreshment stand during the Grangers and Hop Grower's Picnic.

Henry Dancy, manager of the Bell telephone system for Marion and Polk counties was looking after the service in this locality the first of the week.

"Franks Restaurant" has been sold by Frank Buckley to L. E. Neely and S. C. Bell. The change took place today. The new proprietors come from Falls City.

Burns Powell and Guy McReynolds has each purchased a new $65 Conn. trombone. They are beauties. Both will play with the Monmouth band for the big picnic June 24 and 25.

Several of the old soldiers from Independence and Monmouth attended the encampment at Hood River this week. They were J. G. Barber, A. W. Stansberry, Sam DeCamp, Dave Hampton and Mr. Quick.

The cottage of Mr. McGammon on the Monmouth road is now completed making one more desirable residence property for Independence. J. W. Richardson & Son the contractors, are now engaged erecting a new barn for Morgan Ingerman northwest of town.

Next Sabbath at the M. E. church there will be two interesting services. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The work of the Church" and in the evening the subject will be, "Popular with One Man." The services last one hour each and will be of interest to all. Everybody welcome.

Charles Sperling returned last Thursday from his trip to the St. Louis fair, being the first back of the party that left Independence a month ago. Mr. Sperling was gone 23 days. He put in eight days at the big fair and spent some time visiting relatives in Minnesota. The fair Mr. Sperling found is well worth seeing though it is yet very incomplete. He predicts it will not be completed by the time it is scheduled to close. There is some talk of extending the time to January. A. L. Sperling is expected back in a few days.

Married.

Hartley Mulkey and Miss Veda Guthrie were married at the home of the bride's parents in Monmouth Wednesday June 15 at 2 p. m., Rev. J. A. Brown officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Guthrie, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mulkey, living two miles north of Monmouth. The contracting parties are well known and they have the hearty congratulations of many friends both in Independence and Monmouth. After a few days spent at the capital city, Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey will return to Monmouth where they will reside with Mr. Mulkey's parents until the completion of their new home.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Ice cream every day at Craven & Moores.

Call and see the new line of summer skirts at Messners.

New style sad irons at R. M. Wade & Co's.

Some new arrivals in summer goods at Messners.

Phoenix paint is the best. R. M. Wade & Co., agents.

Something new in lace curtains; latest Art Arabians at Messners.

Second hand 3 1/2 inch wagon for sale at R. M. Wade & Co's

Second hand rubber tired buggy for sale at R. M. Wade & Co's.

Ice in any quantity from 5 pounds to 5 tons at Craven & Moores.

Only one more week until the big picnic. Get your boy a new suit at Messner's for that day.

There are thirteen stray sheep at my place. The owner will please call and settle the bill.

JACOB BECKER.

A very neat and choice line of parasols at Messners. Something entirely new and a little different from what others have.

The Rose Fair which was to be given on the evening of June 18th has been postponed on account of the drama at the Normal school Saturday night. The Rose Fair will be Thursday night of next week. A good program will be rendered, and prizes given for various collections of roses.

Osborn Reapers.

For Osborn vetch reapers, the only vetch machine, Osborn Binders, Mowers, Rakes and Extras, call on J. H. Moran, Monmouth.

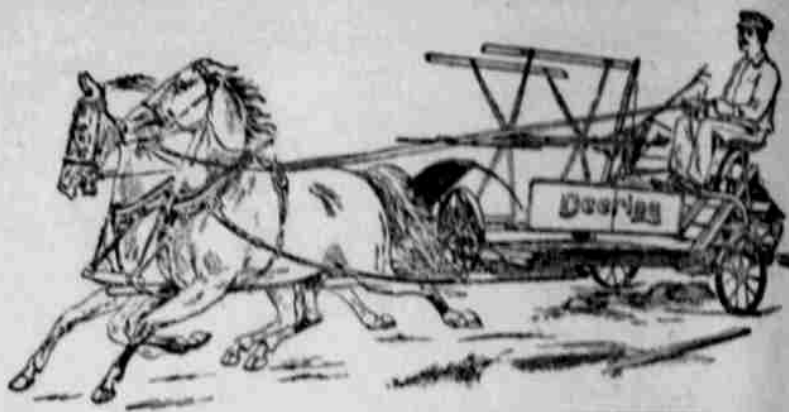

On all our goods, making it an object for you to trade with us. YOU KNOW THE PLACE

E. E. Paddock
Independence, Ore.

Points of Superiority

The reliable Appleby Knotter, Self Aligning bushings, Counterbalanced crank wheel, best reel made, roomy elevators and binder deck, both ball and roller mounting. Bundle carrier does not shatter grain. Solid main frame. No brackets to break loose.

We Sell Clark and Parry Vehicles.

R. M. WADE & CO.

J. R. CRAVEN Manager

INDEPENDENCE OREGON

Rev. E. J. Thompson returned from the east today.

There will be a social dance at the opera house Saturday night. Music furnished by Seeley's orchestra.

The big picnic and convention will be opened on Thursday night with a grand ball by the Monmouth and Independence orchestra. Watch for programs.

Miss Kate Jones is making a two weeks visit in eastern Washington. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fred Chambers, and daughter of Eugene.

Last Sunday Rev. Edmondson made the rounds of the Independence saloons and found them open. Mr. Edmondson counseled deliberation and decided not to file complaints without giving the saloon men notice. The saloon men, it is understood, are willing to keep their places closed on Sundays hereafter and the prospect bids fair for the Sunday law as it applies to the saloons to be enforced in Independence without arrests being made.

J. A. KRAMER.

J. A. Kramer was born in Frederick county, Maryland, Nov. 25, 1824, and moved with his parents to Illinois, where in 1844 he was married to Ann Armstrong. He moved with his family to Monmouth, Oregon, in 1889. His wife died two years ago, since which time he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Beery, until his death which occurred on Friday morning, June 10. He leaves one brother, two sisters, four sons and three daughters. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. Brown of the Christian Church which deceased had been a member for many years. The interment was in the Davidson cemetery of Monmouth on Sunday at 3 p. m.

Ice 1 cent per pound at Craven & Moores.

Notice.

The steam hay baler will be in the field and ready to bale soon as the hay crop is ready.

G. L. REX,
1651 E. 11th Street,
Sellwood, Oregon

S. M. Daniel

Monmouth

S. M. Daniel

Special Prize

CLOTHING SALE

Hats, Shoes, Shirts, Neckties and other nice presents given away

FREE!

This event is unprecedented in merchandising in this section.

For the next two weeks, beginning Saturday, June 18, and ending Saturday, July 2, we will give away free a Hat, a Pair of Shoes, a Shirt and Tie, or some other valuable present with every Suit of Clothes sold for cash. We have a big stock of nice, nobby, stylish, Men's and Young Men's Suits, and we make this extraordinary offer in order to reduce our stock quickly.

With every $15.00

Suit we give you any $3.50 Shoe in our Store.

With every $13.50

Suit we give you any $3.00 Shoe or Hat in our Store.

With every $12.50

Suit we give you any $2.50 Shoe or Hat in our Store.

With every $11.50 or $10.00

Suit we give you any $2.00 Shoe or Hat in our Store.

With every $7.50

Suit we give you a Fine Dress Shirt and Tie.

Every boy under 14 years buying a suit will get a baseball, bat and cap free. One of the highest flying kites made with every pair of boys' shoes.

S. M. DANIEL

MONMOUTH

OREGON